OWNERS AND UNION
ACCEPT PINCHOT'S
PLANS IN PARTCoal Miners' Reply to Governor Says His Proposals Are Basis for Continuing Negotiations.OPERATORS' STAND IS CONDITIONALWant Agreement Putting Proposal in Effect for Long Period; Say 8-Hour Day
Will Cost $2,250,000.

By the Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 31.—Anthraxite operators and mine union officials today returned answer to Gov. Pinchot's proposals for averting mine suspension at midnight, the operators accepting them as a basis for continuing negotiation and the operators, while objecting to the flat 10 per cent wage increase, accepting it on condition that an agreement putting into effect over a long term of years be effected.

The proposed 10 per cent increase in wages which the Governor of-ficed, the union answer found to be unsatisfactory. It reiterated the demand for "check off" collection of union dues.

No assurance was given that the union would withdraw the suspension order, which takes effect at midnight today, but the union was declared to be ready to go again into joint conference with the operators on the Governor's proposal.

Operators, while declaring themselves in agreement with the Governor's proposal on three points, advised that "no general increase in the wages of anthracite mine workers at this time is justified."

Arguing against the Governor's plan for a 10 per cent wage increase, the operators would accept $300,000 a year more to the wage of the industry, and that "any favorable consideration of it by us must be conditioned upon a durable agreement covering a period of years with a provision for annual revision."

On all points except the 10 per cent wage increase, Gov. Pinchot suggested, the joint answers from both groups in the industry indicated a degree of satisfaction, though the union again asked the "check-off" and the operators demanded that the union abandon this and all other demands in consideration of the long-term wage agreement.

Arbitration Plan Criticized.
While the union answer criticized Gov. Pinchot's suggestion of arbitration arrangements in working out the application of his settlement proposal, it said in general that his plan had paved the way to a reopening of joint wage negotiations between the anthracite operators and the representatives of the mine workers; the union committee would accordingly hold itself in readiness to proceed with such joint discussion.

The grant of the eight-hour day, was said, the operators had already made in provision for a fashion.
While the 10 per cent wage increase was said to be "a step in the right direction" for contract miners, it was declared also "insufficient for their needs." For the 65 per cent of employees in anthracite mines paid by the day, the percentage of increase was declared to accentuate existing inequalities in rates which constitutes a source of bitter complaint among the men affected. "An increase in cents per day for day workers equivalent to that suggested for contract miners was asked for."

Expressing regret for the refusal of the Governor to offer the "check off" system of dues collection, the union response said this "Would not in any manner add to the cost of anthraxite," that "for a quarter of a century this arrangement has existed in bituminous districts where collective bargaining is recognized," that some of the anthracite companies having bituminous operations accepted it in those districts; and finally that all districts had installed it for collecting dues "of company unions."

With the recognition of the Governor that collective bargaining had been recognized, and that the anthracite board of conciliation be required to make a complete revision of wage rates, the union answer expressed satisfaction.

In consideration of these several matters, including the remaining number of the 11 demands of the United Mine Workers, the response concluded, "we feel your action has paved the way to a reopening of joint wage negotiations between the anthraxite operators and the representatives of mine workers."

The operators' answer gave unqualified acceptance to the proposal for installing the eight-hour day, though it was estimated to add $2-$3,000,000 per year to coal-mining costs.

MURDERER EXECUTED IN UTAH BY FIRING SQUADGeorge H. Gardner, Strapped in Chair, Shot to Death by Screened Riflemen, for Killing Sheriff and Rancher.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 31.— George H. Gardner was put to death in the State prison here today, according to the law of Utah.
Strapped to a chair, his head muffled in the black cap, he was shot to death by a squad of riflemen who fired through the ports in a curtain which concealed them from the spectators.

Gardner had been condemned to death for the murders of Gordon Stuart, a Deputy Sheriff, and Joseph Irvine, a rancher.

Gardner was led from the death cell at 8:24, stopping at the corner of the cellhouse, where he spoke to his brother-in-law, T. P. John, stating that he wished him to have charge of his funeral.

He then shook hands with Sheriff Harles, and his last statement was that the shooting of Deputy Sheriff Stuart was accidental and committed when he was half crazed with anger.

He also wished to extend his sympathy to Mrs. Stuart. At this point the death cap was placed over his head and the march to the death chair started.

Prisoner Tied in Chair.
Gardner was calm as he walked with the Sheriff and a deputy to the chair. He was placed in the chair, his hands and legs were tied, and without further evidence of emotion he waited the Sheriff's command of execution.

The Sheriff's car arrived at the prison at 6 a. m. and the firing squad a few minutes later, and with curtains drawn and without stopping, drove to the curtain from which the five shots were fired.

Gardner, evidence at his trial showed, shot Deputy Stuart when Stuart and other deputies went to Gardner's farm to serve papers attaching it. Gardner was executed 15 months and 19 days after he was first sentenced to die.

Few Persons See Execution.
Very few persons were allowed to witness the execution. Newspaper men, police and county officials and physicians and a brother-in-law of Gardner were allowed to see him put to death.

Relatives and friends of the condemned man were allowed to see him late last night for the last time and spent two hours and a half in the death cell. Gardner's supposed wife has on several occasions tried to touch with him, but was refused permission to see him. She has also been convicted of manslaughter in connection with the shooting of the Deputy Sheriff and is awaiting a new trial.

According to available records of the State Gardner was the twentieth man to face a firing squad.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 31.—On a muddy track and under heavy clouds, following showers during the night and early morning, Robert Lee Shepherd was to start the first pony express race from St. Joseph to San Francisco.

The race is in celebration of the day, 60 years ago, when a horseman waited here for a train to arrive from Hannibal with mail from the East so he could cross the Missouri
and begin his dash westward.

The race started on a signal from President Coolidge, who pressed a gold key in Washington.

Changing somewhat from the original trail, the route today dropped south from St. Joseph and took
in Atchison and Leavenworth, Kan.
Early settlements on the Missouri will be on the route, and toward night the rider will reach Lawrence, Kan. There the pony express will pause a moment while exercises are held in front of the hotel that was destroyed by border raiders 60 years ago this month.

Topeka is to be reached by 10 p.
m. and there the rider will leave messages for Gov. Davis from Gov.
Hyde of Missouri and take other messages from Kansas Governor to
Gov. Shoup of Colorado.

Two riders and 18 mounts are expected to cover the 168 miles from St. Joseph to St. Mary's. Dan Casement of Manhattan will manage the section from St. Mary's to Salina. In all 243 horses are to be used in the race to San Francisco.

So far as is known, only one woman will ride in the race for what had originally been placed as a race between army horsemen and cowboys had to be changed when the army could not enter. Miss Ruth Wesman will have the first 60 miles of the run in Nevada.

When the pony express was first established, 80 riders, 100 stations, and 420 strong, wiry horses were used. As the service grew, more employees and equipment were added. Eight days or more were ordinarily required for the trips from St. Joseph to Kansas City, but when President Lincoln's inaugural address of 1861 was received at St.
Joseph, special efforts were made to hurry it across, and the journey was made in seven days and 17 hours.

Horses with speed rather than endurance were chosen for this trip, and the animals were pressed at top speed. The best time ever made from St. Joseph to Denver, 665 miles, was two days and 21 hours.

ATCHISON, Kan., Aug. 31.—One minute was required for the change of riders in the pony express race from St. Joseph to San Francisco, five miles north of here. C. L. Main broke up to the Paul Kuhert farm, where the change was made at 1:02 o'clock, and turned over his bag of special mail to John Carter, 15-year-old Topeka (Kan.) boy, who dashed for Atchison at 1:03. The Kansas-Texas trail will be followed from Atchison to Leavenworth.

MAN, WIFE AND BOY KILLED WHEN AUTO

Mount Olive, Ill., Lose Lives at Crossing.

By the Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31.—A motor car carrying a family of four was killed when it stalled on the tracks of an interurban train at a crossing near St. Louis. The family consisted of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dieterman and their 14-year-old son, Roland, who were killed at 9:30 o'clock last night when the Ford truck in which they were returning home from St. Louis was hit by an interurban train of the Illinois Traction System a mile south of St. Louis.

Dieterman, who was 50 years old, a coal miner and former Chief of Police of Mount Olive, had driven to St. Louis to purchase school supplies for his children. Five other children of the family, ranging in age from 16 to a baby a few months old, had been left at home. Roland occupied the front seat with his father, and Mrs.
Dieterman, 39, sat in a rear seat.

The truck had been used by Dieterman to convey coal miners from Mount Olive to the nearby mines.
The interurban train, westbound from Springfield and due in St.
Louis at 10:50 p. m., was within 300 feet of the crossing when the motor car and several passengers saw the motor truck approaching the tracks.
John Wheeler, motorman, sounded his whistle and applied the emergency brake. The truck was crossing the rails when it suddenly stopped. Witnesses were unable to tell whether Dieterman became confused, had "killed" the engine, but they saw him making frantic efforts to start the truck.

The bodies of the Dietermans were badly cut, and they were dead when
the train was stopped and the passengers ran to where they lay. The bodies were removed to Worden, the nearest town, and today were transferred to Mount Olive.

BOXER KNOCKED OUT, HIS MOTHER
TAKES UP FIGHT10 Policemen Required to Stop Free-for-All Encounter at Negro Fistic Carnival.

A mother battling for her unfortunate son almost broke up a negro boxing carnival of the Dunbar Athletic Association at St. Louis Stars baseball park, Compton avenue and Market street, last night, and 10 policemen were required to stop a free-for-all fight that ensued.

It was the first round of the curtain-raiser, a preliminary event between Kid Francis and K. O. Walker, two negro youths who savagely attacked each other. Before the bout had got well under way Walker knocked out his opponent.

The mother of the defeated Kid, who had been coaching him from the ring-side, looked upon her un-substantial son for a moment and sprang into the ring. Before the referee could stop her she planted a terrific punch on the victor's nose and sank her teeth in his shoulder.

The uproar brought Capt. Mc-Guire and 10 officers from Laclede Station, and they found the fighting pair in possession of things. The Kid's mother defied the police, and they found it necessary to offset her attack by throwing her to the platform. Kid Francis at this moment regretted his sensibility, and, observing that his mother was in trouble, attacked the police. He soon was overpowered, and mother and son were taken to a patrol box. There met the father of Kid Francis, who attempted to interfere, and the three were taken to Laclede Station, but later released.

After these events the other bouts on the program were given.

TWO WORKMEN KILLED WHEN NAPHTHALINE STILL EXPLODESTen Others Hurt in Blast at Philadelphia Dye and Chemical Works.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—Two workmen were killed and 10 others injured when a large naphthalene still exploded early today at the dye and chemical works of the Barrett company in the northeastern part of the city. The blast rocked the neighborhood and fire that followed destroyed the building which housed the still.

The victims were working in a room adjoining the one containing the still. The explosion occurred when the still was being filled with naphthalene. The still was hurled through the roof.

The bodies of the Dietermans were badly cut, and they were dead when
sengers ran to where they lay. The bodies were removed to Worden, the
nearest town, and today were transferred to Mount Olive.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 31.—On a muddy track and under heavy
clouds, following showers during the night and early morning, Robert Lee Shepherd was to start the first pony
Francisco.

The race is in celebration of the
day, 60 years ago, when a horseman
waited here for a train to arrive
from Hannibal with mail from the East so he could cross the Missouri
and begin his dash westward.

President Coolidge, who pressed a gold key in Washington.

Changing somewhat from the original trail, the route today dropped
in Atchison and Leavenworth, Kan.
Early settlements on the Missouri
will be on the route, and toward
night the rider will reach Lawrence, Kan. There the pony express will
destroyed by border raiders 60 years ago this month.

Topeka is to be reached by 10 p.
m. and there the rider will leave
messages for Gov. Davis from Gov.
Hyde of Missouri and take other
messages from Kansas Governor to
Gov. Shoup of Colorado.

NEW DIRIGIBLE TO USE HELIUM

TC-3 to Have Trial Next Week at Scott Field.
The airship TC-3, a sister ship of the TC-1, which was destroyed in an electrical storm at Dayton, O., is being put in commission at Scott Field, Belleville, and will have a trial flight next week. It will be inflated with helium, a nonflammable gas. The TC-3 is 198 feet long and has a diameter of 45 feet. Controlled by two pilots, it carries seven passengers, including crew.
Its cruising radius is 1600 miles, and it is capable of making 60 miles an hour. It will be able to lift a useful load of about 4000 pounds. It is expected that Scott Field soon will have a number of these ships.

COOLIDGE COMMENTS
ON CHANGES SINCE '98

President Sends Letter to Commander of Spanish War Veterans in Tennessee.

By the Associated Press.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 31.—In a letter to Commander Elsworth Wilson of the United Spanish War Veterans, Department of Tennessee, expressing his regret at his inability to attend the quarter-centennial encampment of the veterans at Chattanooga, President Coolidge wrote that it was "difficult to realize that a quarter of a century had passed since the year of the Spanish-American war." and wondered what the next quarter of a century would bring forth in the world. The letter said in part:
"To many of us it will be difficult to realize that a quarter century has passed since the year of the Spanish-American war. Yet from another point of view, we must find it difficult to realize also that so tremendous changes could have come over the world in so short a period. The contest resulted in greatly changing our relationship to the outside world and events since have continued the process of change until this hour."
"In the present condition of world affairs it is impossible, indeed, to anticipate the extent to which our relations may be reorganized in another quarter of a century, but even the most casual consideration of what has transpired since 1898 must surely impress us with the need that as a nation we shall be prepared spiritually and materially for every great and impressive modification in all our relations to the world about us."
"That we may most readily adjust ourselves to the constantly changing conditions, and may best perform the great part which must be ours, it is necessary that we cultivate and encourage in every way possible those sentiments of patriotism and of devotion to the highest ideals of liberty and humanity which were the inspiration of the men of 1898. It is good to know that the United Spanish War Veterans have so long and persistently devoted themselves to these high aims."

NEGRO ORGANIZATION PLANNED TO PUT THE RACE ABOVE PARTY

Hopes to Break Down Blind Adherence to Parties So as to Gain Rights.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—An organization to put race above party was started yesterday by the National Negro Democratic League, which took the name of the Non-Partisan National League of Colored Voters, and hopes to obtain 250,000 negro members.
The object of the new society is to break down blind loyalty to party among negro voters. Maj. Albert E. Patterson, president of the league, said. Other officers of the Non-Partisan League are Ferdinand G. Morton, member of the New York Civil Service Commission, who was elected executive chairman, and Edward P. Chappell, vice-president.
The colored voter, more than any other, is inclined to follow tradition, Patterson said. The new organization hopes to form a solid front of negroes who will throw their influence only to that party which is willing to guarantee the race their full Constitutional rights as Americans, he said.
At the concluding meeting of the league, resolutions were passed protesting against the attitude of the Republican administration toward the negro and objecting to the appointment by President Coolidge of C. R. Smith as secretary and Col. Sherill as military aide at the White House.

ABEKEN TO QUIT OFFICE TODAY

Superintendent of Recreation Will Practice Law.

Today is Rodow Abeken's last day as Superintendent of Recreation for the city, as he will take up the practice of law tomorrow. Abeken, who lives at 914 Utah street, started working for the city in 1911 as captain of the pool lifeguards and general director of athletics, and later became secretary to Miss Charlotte Rumbold, whom he succeeded as superintendent May 16, 1917.
Development of playground and kindred activities has been under Abeken's direction. His last big task was the direction of the annual festival in Forest Park last Wednesday. For the last two months he has been working on half time. He will be associated with Edward V. Forster, attorney, William Forger of 4544 Gibson avenue, director of athletics, who has worked for the department more than three years, tomorrow will become superintendent.

Says He Slapped Holdup Man.
Wayne Patrynyz, 32 years old, of 2661 De Kalb street, found at his home suffering from seven cuts on the arms, told the police last night he had been stabbed by one of two men who had attempted to hold him up at the rear gate of his home at 9:15 p. m. He said one of the men had what appeared to be a revolver when they stopped him and demanded his money. He took a second look at the revolver, he said, and remarked, "That looks like a toy to me," and slapped the man holding the weapon, knocking him down. The second man, he said, drew a knife and cut him and both ran away. They obtained nothing.

New Overblouses for Fall Radiate Individuality in Mode $12.50

FITTING snugly over the skirt and hips as is most becoming and most necessary for slender lines, these Over-blouses incite interest in the manner in which they interpret the mode.

Elaborately braided on crepe de chine, each Blouse gains attention for the way in which it applies its trimming.

Conventional braiding decorates the belt and cuffs and extends up the front to shoulder.

Others without collars have a V-neck decorated with braiding and sleeves split from cuff to elbow outlined in same design.

These are just a few of the twelve styles exhibited. Bright and dark colors are shown in sizes 34 to 46.

TAX UPON COSTLY PURCHASES TO BE URGED BY SMOOT

Senator Will Present to Congress Substitute for Sales Tax Which He Vainly Advocated.

WOULD EXEMPT FARM SALES UP TO $6000

Cheap Commodities and Inexpensive Autos Would Escape Impost—Graduated Rate on Luxuries.

By the Associated Press.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 31.—A tax on luxury purchases is the purpose of an expenditure tax which is being prepared by United States Senator Reed Smoot of Utah and will be presented to the next session of Congress as a substitute for the proposed sales tax, which he formerly advocated, according to announcement by the Senator.

Smoot, explaining the provisions of the new tax bill, said that all farmers' sales up to $6000 would be exempt.

Cheap commodities, such as a $3.50 pair of shoes or an inexpensive automobile, would not be taxed under the proposed legislation, but more expensive purchases, such as a $2000 automobile or a $7.50 pair of shoes, would be taxable at the rate of one and one-half per cent.

"The sales tax, which caused considerable debate in the last session of Congress will not be revived," Senator Smoot said. "But, in its place, will be a tax more serviceable and causing less opposition. I do not expect any opposition from the farmers, because of exemption up to the $6000 mark."

"A man who can buy a $2000 automobile can afford to pay a tax on his purchase. It is for that reason that the tax is to be drawn upon a graduated scale. Inexpensive purchases will be taxed very little, while expensive purchases will draw a heavier rate. The $6000 purchase will amount to $2.50, under the provisions of the proposed measure."

Senator Smoot is a strong believer in the workability of a sales tax or the proposed expenditure tax. He explained that considerable opposition was made to similar taxation when it was proposed in Canada, but that the opposition had vanished and farmers in the neighboring country on the north were strong advocates of that form of taxation. In England, Germany and other countries of the European continent, the sales or expenditure tax is being accepted as the most feasible form of taxation," Smoot said.

FUND STARTED TO AID SINGER LIVING IN WOODCHOPPER'S CABIN

Musical America Opens Subscription for Mme. F. Altemand, One-time Famous Soprano.

John C. Freund, editor of Musical America, published in New York, has opened a subscription list to assist Mme. Pauline F. Altemand, former famous coloratura soprano in leading operatic roles in this country and Europe, now living in a woodchopper's cabin near Edwardsville, Ill., as related recently in the True Life Section of the Sunday Post-Dispatch.

It was the publication of Madame F. Altemand's plight in the Post-Dispatch, a summary of which was sent to Musical America, that prompted the opening of the subscription. Contributions thus far acknowledged are $25 from Musical America, $15 from John C. Freund and $10 from Isaac Hedges, Washington University, St. Louis.

Mrs. Lee Schweiger, 303 Washington avenue, founder and president of the Musicians' Fund of America, is taking an interest in the case of the singer. The organization plans a National Home for Aged, Indigent and Infirm Musicians, which Mrs. Schweiger hopes to have established in St. Louis. A campaign for donations and members is to take place in November.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS BY U. S.

Machinery Set Up Governing Civil Service Applicants.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Completion of machinery to carry out an executive order signed by President Harding June 28, directing physical examination of applications for civil service positions in which physical qualifications are a factor, was announced yesterday by the Civil Service Commission.

The carrying out of the order, one of the last signed by Mr. Harding, will be in the hands jointly of the Civil Service Commission and the Public Health Service. The arrangement does away with the present practice of requiring only physicians' health certificates. The examinations will be at cities and towns where the Public Health Service maintains stations.

Postal Employees to Hold Picnic.
The employees of the postoffice will hold their second annual basket picnic at Mueller's Park, 5810 Gravois avenue, Labor Day. There will be races, games, dancing and other amusements.

COOLIDGE FAVORS SHIPPING BOARD'S SUBSIDIARIES PLAN

Failing to Get Good Offers for Government Craft, It Is Hoped to Build Up Separate Going Concerns.

HIGHER VALUE IN CASE OF SALE ONE OBJECT

Opportunity Seen in Scheme for Economy of Operation and Possibly Increased Business.

By DAVID LAWRENCE.
Special Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
Copyright, 1934.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—President Coolidge has given his approval to the policy of the United States Shipping Board to split up its present operating system into subsidiary companies analogous to the United States Steel Corporation.

The President made clear to the members of the Shipping Board, whom he received in his study in the executive mansion, that he believed wholeheartedly in a merchant marine. He pointed out that not only America need her own ships as a measure of economic protection in time of peace, but as an indispensable auxiliary to the navy in time of war.

The offers received thus far for the ships have not commended themselves to the Government, and the Shipping Board is going ahead with its own operation of the fleet, but it is to build subsidiary companies in the hope that each will be a going concern and will have a better market value than if the ships themselves were to be offered for sale.

Mr. Coolidge is very much impressed by the opportunity the subsidiary company idea offers to consolidate lines and operate with fewer ships than heretofore and do the same or even a greater business. Duplication will be eliminated and expenses reduced. It is not surprising that the executive found occasion, on recommendation of the Shipping Board, to ask for a much smaller budget this year.

As for the legality of the new plan only a few members of the board have been in doubt about it. The Panama Canal Corporation and the United States Grain Corporation are sufficiently recent to offer precedents that will be helpful for both cases the Government owned the stock.

Indeed, no legal obstacles are really expected to be found but, if they are, then the organization of subsidiary companies can still be developed, without corporate form, though the latter would be more practicable and more advantageous in attracting shippers, who dislike the idea of being unable to sue the Government without its consent for claims and adjustments. They could not the subsidiary corporations as readily as foreign shipping lines incorporated under state laws in America.

NEW GERMAN BANKS HELP TO WEAKEN VALUE OF MARK

Method of Attracting Depositors Said to Have Effect Toward Depreciation.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—In a circular, Samuel Montagu & Co., bankers and foreign experts, give an interesting example of how Germany herself is weakening the mark on foreign exchanges by enlarging the demand for surplus currencies. Prussian and Bavarian banks, with state sanction, are instituting an attractive savings deposit by undertaking to repay the depositor in paper marks of the same value.

The "Savings Gold Mark" thus adds the depreciation of the dollar while they remain with the bank. The bank avoids any loss in the way. The "Savings Gold Mark" is merely a camouflage for the purpose of the depositor to keep his money in the bank, to be kept, say for three months, at 2 per cent, the bank pays a corresponding amount of dollars and deposits them with the American bank at, say, 5 per cent. The result is that the depositor is precluded by law from sending money abroad, is also by law induced to do so, while the bank makes a profit both on exchange and interest, which profit the bank is prohibited and permitted by the law to leave abroad.

CAUSES BOAT TO CAPSIZE

Woman, His Wife and Child Drowned in the Rio Grande.

By Associated Press.
EL PASO, TEX., Aug. 31.—A woman and her child were drowned when a large boat capsized in the Rio Grande, a few miles above the border, according to information received here from El Paso.

The party, consisting of man, woman and child, had pushed off from the Mexican side, when the boat, which was carrying a large amount of goods, capsized into the bank. The man was not recovered.

Under the latter would be more flexible and more advantageous

The "Savings Gold Mark" thus weakens the depreciation of the de-

INDIANA GOVERNOR TO MEET CREDITORS
McCray Reported Ready to Turn Over Property to Committee of Five Bankers.
By The Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 31.—Creditors of Gov. Warren T. McCray will meet with representatives of the executive here today to consider a proposal for settlement of the latter's financial difficulties.
The Governor, who issued the call for the meeting yesterday, said he was confident of being able to meet all obligations if given sufficient time to liquidate his holdings at their proper value.
It was said in authoritative circles that the plan the Governor will probably submit to the creditors, would provide for appointment of a committee of five bankers to have control over all his property, with the exception of his family home at Kentland, Ind. The committee would have power to supervise operation of his business interests which include one of the largest blooded stock farms in the country or to sell his property.
Says He Can Meet Debts.
Gov. McCray said that he had assets, based on fair values, far in excess of his liabilities and all that he needed was a chance to work himself out of the situation, that economic conditions have brought about.
The Governor's statement regarding his financial status followed an announcement that his resignation as president of the Discount and Deposit Savings Bank of Kentland, Ind., his home city, had been accepted.
Gov. McCray now has no connection with the Kentland bank, according to L. V. Dodson, vice president, who declared the bank was in excellent condition. The Governor recently disposed of 250 shares of stock in the institution. Mr. Dodson said. He added that the bank had held a substantial amount of Gov. McCray's paper, which he had accepted on the sale of blooded cattle. This has now been taken up. Mr. Dodson said, and the proceeds are in the bank's vaults.
The Governor, prior to making the race for office, was one of the largest farm owners in the State. He had devoted little time to politics.
The Governor issued the following statement:
Asks for a Fair Chance.
"The facts are that my land holdings, amounting to over 15,000 acres of choice land, together with my inability to cash the cattle paper due me from my cattle customers, amounting to over $500,000, and the depression in land and cattle values have made it impossible for me to meet my obligations as they have matured."
"I have assets, based upon fair values, far over and above my liabilities and all that I need is a chance to work myself out of a situation that the economic conditions are responsible for. Under present conditions, with fair liquidation I can pay dollar for dollar to every creditor, but I feel confident that if given a little time for a normal disposition of the property and with the hope that farm conditions will improve, that I will not be compelled to make the sacrifice that would be necessary if the property was forced to be sold at once. I do not wish to sacrifice the wonderful herd of cattle I have developed during the past 20 years, which are a credit to the State, and which are worth four or five times as much if sold as breeding animals as they would be if forced to be liquidated as ordinary market beefs are sold."
"I want a fair chance. Again I say that I am the victim of the general economic conditions facing agriculture and the purebred livestock industry, the situation being aggravated by the fact that I have devoted my energies and my time so completely and so zealously to the position I hold that I have subordinated my personal interests to those of the State."

INDIANA GOVERNOR TO MEET CREDITORS
McCray Reported Ready to Turn Over Property to Committee of Five Bankers.
By The Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 31.—Creditors of Gov. Warren T. McCray will meet with representatives of the executive here today to consider a proposal for settlement of the latter's financial difficulties.
The Governor, who issued the call for the meeting yesterday, said he was confident of being able to meet all obligations if given sufficient time to liquidate his holdings at their proper value.
It was said in authoritative circles that the plan the Governor will probably submit to the creditors, would provide for appointment of a committee of five bankers to have control over all his property, with the exception of his family home at Kentland, Ind. The committee would have power to supervise operation of his business interests which include one of the largest blooded stock farms in the country or to sell his property.
Says He Can Meet Debts.
Gov. McCray said that he had assets, based on fair values, far in excess of his liabilities and all that he needed was a chance to work himself out of the situation, that economic conditions have brought about.
The Governor's statement regarding his financial status followed an announcement that his resignation as president of the Discount and Deposit Savings Bank of Kentland, Ind., his home city, had been accepted.
Gov. McCray now has no connection with the Kentland bank, according to L. V. Dodson, vice president, who declared the bank was in excellent condition. The Governor recently disposed of 250 shares of stock in the institution. Mr. Dodson said. He added that the bank had held a substantial amount of Gov. McCray's paper, which he had accepted on the sale of blooded cattle. This has now been taken up. Mr. Dodson said, and the proceeds are in the bank's vaults.
The Governor, prior to making the race for office, was one of the largest farm owners in the State. He had devoted little time to politics.
The Governor issued the following statement:
Asks for a Fair Chance.
"The facts are that my land holdings, amounting to over 15,000 acres of choice land, together with my inability to cash the cattle paper due me from my cattle customers, amounting to over $500,000, and the depression in land and cattle values have made it impossible for me to meet my obligations as they have matured."
"I have assets, based upon fair values, far over and above my liabilities and all that I need is a chance to work myself out of a situation that the economic conditions are responsible for. Under present conditions, with fair liquidation I can pay dollar for dollar to every creditor, but I feel confident that if given a little time for a normal disposition of the property and with the hope that farm conditions will improve, that I will not be compelled to make the sacrifice that would be necessary if the property was forced to be sold at once. I do not wish to sacrifice the wonderful herd of cattle I have developed during the past 20 years, which are a credit to the State, and which are worth four or five times as much if sold as breeding animals as they would be if forced to be liquidated as ordinary market beefs are sold."
"I want a fair chance. Again I say that I am the victim of the general economic conditions facing agriculture and the purebred livestock industry, the situation being aggravated by the fact that I have devoted my energies and my time so completely and so zealously to the position I hold that I have subordinated my personal interests to those of the State."

CITY HEADS CRITICISED BY INCINERATOR FOES

Failure of Officials to Attend Protest Meeting Arouses Several Speakers.

Protests against the plan of the city to erect a garbage incinerator on De Tonty street, near King's highway, were renewed last night at a meeting of about 350 residents of the vicinity, at Bryan Mulvaney School, 4221 Shaw avenue. Plans were made to attend a public hearing to be held on the incinerator project Tuesday, before the Board of Public Service.

A fighting front to any move to place the incinerator in that district was urged by speakers. One became enthusiastic to the point of offering a fight to city officials, not present, who might advance an opinion the present incinerator at Chouteau avenue and the river is odorless. Signatures of approximately 4500 persons have been obtained to petitions asking the city to alter the plan to the extent of not locating the plant on the De Tonty street site, a committee reported. The protest movement is being carried on by the Southwest Property Owners' Protective Association.

Contract Being Held Up. Bids on the construction of the incinerator were received Aug. 28, but the Board of Public Service has deferred action on a contract award until the property owners can appear before the board. The Southwest association has retained an attorney and plans injunction procedure in the courts if unable to prevail on city officials to change the incinerator plans.

Invitations to attend last night's meeting had been issued to Mayor Kiel, Comptroller Nolte and the five members of the Board of Public Service, and members of the Board of Aldermen, but none appeared. Letters were received stating Mayor Kiel, Comptroller Nolte and Director Pink, of the Department of Streets and Sewers, were out of the city.

"If this were a political meeting all the city officials would be down here asking your support," said P. J. Regan of 4179 Shenandoah avenue, "but we can't get them down here for a meeting like this. All the Aldermen are out of the city and the Mayor is not at home."

City Comptroller Attacked.

Another speaker, who talked on five occasions, launched an attack on the Comptroller for what he termed was discourteous treatment of a woman member of a delegation which visited him on the incinerator project, but was halted in the denunciation by the woman herself, who stated to the audience that she had been courteously treated.

C. B. Hardin of 4211 Flora avenue, suggested that if the association expected to get any favors from the city, it would be advisable to stop "panning" the officials personally and concentrate the arguments on smells and other disadvantages of the proposed incinerator.

FIXING OF BUTTERICK PATTERN SALE PRICE ORDERED STOPPED

Federal Trade Board Forbids Six Companies to Stipulate Retail Charge.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The Butterick company and five other dress pattern concerns affiliated with it through consolidation or joint stock ownership were prohibited yesterday by the Federal Trade Commission from selling their patterns to dealers for resale to the public at stipulated prices.

The commission also ordered discontinued the alleged practice of the six companies in requiring their contract dealers to handle only their patterns to the exclusion of those manufactured by other concerns.

The defendant concerns were said by the commission to control approximately 40 per cent of the dress pattern industry. Those named in addition to the Butterick company were the Federal Publishing Co., the Standard Fashion Co., Butterick Publishing Co., the New Idea Pattern Co. and the Designer Publishing Co., all of New York City.

Specifically, the companies were ordered not to sell "the patterns manufactured by them or any of them for resale to the public upon any contract, agreement or understanding that the distributors shall maintain the resale price fixed by the maker and that such distributors shall not deal in patterns produced by any other maker than the respondents or any of them."

NINE ARRESTS AFTER SOCIALIST SPEECH MADE IN KANSAS CITY

Speaker's Remarks About "Poor German Soldiers" Resented by Crowd.

By the Associated Press. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 31.—Nine persons, including the speaker, were arrested at a meeting here last night when police were summoned to prevent an outbreak following a speech by Mrs. Esther Freedman of New York in the interest of the Socialist party. Her auditors resented her remarks.

Mrs. Freedman is quoted by the police as saying that she pitied "the poor German soldiers because the United States used poison gas in its fighting" and urging the disbanding of the army and placing the Socialists in control of the nation's affairs. All nine prisoners were released on $25 bonds.

The Only MARKET STREET AT ELEVENTHLEAGUE ASSEMBLY TO MEET IN GENEVA SEPT. 3Numerous Questions Will Be Up for Discussion, Several States May Ask for Membership.By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, Aug. 11.—The fourth general assembly of the League of Nations will be called to order Monday morning, Sept. 3, by Viscount Lalib, former Japanese Ambassador at Washington and now Ambassador to France.The forthcoming meeting is regarded with great international interest. The slogan has passed through its most active year of endeavor, and numerous are the questions which will come up for discussion by the representatives of the 52 nations affiliated with the Geneva organization. It is regarded as certain that Ireland will apply for membership; Turkey and one or two other states may do likewise.The assembly will bring together many of the world's foremost statesmen, including Gen. Smuts, the celebrated leader of the South African republic; Lord Robert Cecil; Dr. F.
Nansen, for many years prominent in European relief work; former Premier Branting of Sweden; Foreign Minister Benes of Czechoslovakia; representatives of the British overseas dominions and spokesmen of some 18 South American republics.Men From All the World.
Something like 1500 persons, including national delegates, experts in various fields, and journalists from all corners of the globe are expected, and already Geneva is making ready its display of flags of all the world, preparing the great fountain which plays in the inner harbor, and otherwise planning for the reception of men from many lands, of many races, and of many languages.All the work of the assembly will be done in public. Every session, both plenary and committee, open to the press. Apparently efforts are being made to prevent the league from falling into those ways of secrecy which often mark the course of diplomatic and international negotiations. Occasionally, during the last year, some session of the council were held privately, with resultant criticism based on the allegation that, if the league, as it gets stronger, yields to the temptation to follow the road of secrecy, it is eventually doomed to failure because the keynote of its success must be open covenants openly arrived at. The assembly generally discusses not only what the league has done during the past year, but also what it has not done and should do.Each state which is a member of the league may be represented by not more than three delegates who are appointed by and responsible to their respective Governments. As the work of the league covers many different fields of international life, and as the sessions are run with the greatest possible expedition, many countries have supplementary delegates and expert advisors on various problems. Each, however, has but one vote. Practically all questions of importance can be decided only by unanimous vote. One state could block an agreement, if it wished to take the responsibility. As a matter of fact, such a contingency has not arisen in the history of the league.
One of two policies has been followed. Either negotiations have been pursued until an agreement acceptable to all has been reached, or states which felt unable to agree to a definite proposal have abstained from voting, thus allowing the proposal to be adopted by the other countries.FATHER AND SON CONVICTED OF MURDER NEAR WARSAW, MO.Second Trial of Men Accused of Hiring Assassin Results in Life Sentence.By the Associated Press.
WARSAW, Mo., Aug. 11.—Chambers and Eary Buckley, father and son, were found guilty of first degree murder by a jury in Circuit Court here last night and were sentenced to life imprisonment. In connection with the fatal shooting July 14, 1922, of Alfred Lutman at his farm near here. The Buckleys were implicated by Claude Estes, who is alleged to have confessed that he was hired by them for $15 to shoot Lutman. Estes escaped from jail at Sedalia, Mo., last winter and is still at large.

SMITH CENTER, Kan.—Amos McDaniel, 78, of Opeka, who was knocked down by a car and badly hurt on a street in Downs July 26, was able to be taken home a few days ago. For many years prior to the accident Mr. McDaniel had been totally deaf in his right ear, and his left ear also was badly affected.
After he began recovering it was observed that he could hear partially through the right ear and he explained it by saying it seemed that some obstruction in his ear had been torn loose by the shock of the accident.Relative's Sought 15-Year-Old Boy.

Rail Ruling Reversed.
By the Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 31.—The Georgia Public Service Commission, in a ruling yesterday, reversed its previous decision and granted a rehearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission to the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railroad, on its petition for acquisition of the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad. The commission had previously held that to permit the lease would provide competition for the State-owned Western & Atlantic Railroad.

RABBI GRODSKY NOT PRESENT AT HIS PRELIMINARY HEARING Certificate Presented Says Man Accused of Selling Wine Is Ill.

Rabbi Jacob Grodsky of 1508 Wash street was not present today, when Federal officials sought to hold his preliminary hearing, on a charge of selling ritual wine unlawfully, before Commissioner Atkins. A certificate, to the effect that Grodsky was suffering from indigestion, was presented. It was signed by Dr. M. I. DeVorkin.

Inasmuch as Grodsky's attorneys had previously tried to get a postponement of the hearing on legal grounds, the Government was not ready to accept the certificate of illness without further inquiry. George Bausewein, in charge of prohibition enforcement agency, demanded that the hearing be held as scheduled.

"My principal witness is apt to be killed at any time," Bausewein said, speaking of J. H. Kopfunavitch, who purchased champagne from Grodsky, and paid a price which meant a profit of 150 per cent for Grodsky. One of Grodsky's lawyers objected to this statement, and Bausewein replied that his remark was not hearsay, but that he had himself heard threats against the life of Kopfunavitch. "I am tired of giving all my time to protecting this man," he said, "and I have other work to do."

It was ordered that a physician to be selected by Bausewein should examine Grodsky, and should report on his ability to come to court. The hearing was then adjourned until 11 a. m. tomorrow.

PETITION FOR ORDER AGAINST RIESMEYER IN DEPUTY'S HANDS
Explanation for Withholding of Securities From Brother's Widow Is Sought.

Application for an order directing Gus Riesmeyer Jr., president of the International Bank of St. Louis, to explain the withholding of securities valued at approximately $40,000 from his brother's widow has been placed in the hands of a deputy of the Probate Court at Clayton, to be filed formally when the court convenes Sept. 12.

The step was taken by counsel for Mrs. Frances Spink Riesmeyer, whose husband, Edward H. Riesmeyer, president of the General Advertising Sign Co., shot and killed himself in her apartment at 6917 Pershing avenue, Feb. 21, following her refusal to drop divorce proceedings.

The securities listed in the application include 150 shares of stock in the G. Riesmeyer Mercantile and Investment Co., of a reported par value of $15,000; 50 shares in the Glendora Coal Co., valued at $5000; interest in stock in the Wadsworth Valley Distilling Co., valued at $2500; 25 shares in the General Advertising Sign Co., valued at $9300; eight shares in the Franklin Bank, valued at $800; 10 shares of common stock in the Fulton Iron Works; 10 shares in the Archer Holding Co., valued at $100; dividend checks, salary check due the Edward H. Riesmeyer estate from the General Advertising Sign Co.; interest in notes and a gold watch and chain.

MOTHER OF 8 HELD AFTER RAID Police Report Finding Still in Operation on Kitchen Stove.

Mrs. Mary Mazewski, 41 years old, of 1314 North Ninth street, second floor rear, and a widow and the mother of eight children, was arrested at 1 p. m. yesterday by Carr street police, men who reported finding in her home a small still in operation on a kitchen stove, five barrels of mash, a gallon of supposed moonshine whiskey and empty jugs and bottles. The police had no search warrant.

Albert Stahlbery, bartender in a saloon at 1801 Wash street, was arrested yesterday. Policemen say they found behind a partition in the saloon two quart bottles and a pint bottle partly filled with illicit whiskey. Michael J. Rogan, proprietor of the saloon, was not there, but was arrested later.

HUNT HONEY BEES IN TEMPLE
Members of Masonic Lodge Get Lots of Their Storing.

EL DORADO, Kan.—Visions of boyhood hunts for "bee trees" were recalled to several El Doradoans, when a honey search was conducted in the Masonic Temple.

About two months ago, several members of the Masonic lodge discovered that two swarms of bees had established themselves inside the panels between the windows and transoms of the southwest corner of the third floor of the building. One swarm had built its nest on the south side, the other on the west. Honey began to run from the latter and several members of the lodge decided to take possession of it.

The bees were quieted with tobacco smoke and 125 pounds of clear white honey were removed from the nest. The other nest will be raided soon.

Margaret Lawrence, Actress, Is Divorced.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Margaret Lawrence, light comedy star, has been divorced a year unknown to her friends. It was learned today. Her husband, Orson D. Munn, a wealthy New York patent lawyer, was an ensign in the United States navy at the time of his marriage to the actress nine years ago. Margaret Lawrence came into theatrical fame in 1913 when she was starred in a farce called "Over Night." She left the stage when she married Mr. Munn, but returned four years ago in "Tea for Three."

DRIVER FAILS TO STOP AFTER AUTO RUNS DOWN BLIND MAN

Newspaper Vendor Suffers Fracture of Leg and Other Injuries—Two Boys Struck by Machine.

Cyrus Morris, 36 years old, known to many persons as the blind man with a cane who has sold newspapers on the southwest corner of Ninth and Olive streets for years, suffered a fracture of the left leg. Fracture of the index finger on the right hand, lacerations of the scalp and numerous body bruises at 12:10 a. m. today when knocked down by an automobile, which failed to stop, in front of 4472 Arsenal street.

Morris had alighted from a west-bound Tower Grove street car, en route to his residence, 2314 A. Maryland road, where he lives with his mother, Mrs. Harriet Morris. The automobile, described by witnesses as a black touring car, was speeding eastward on Arsenal street. Morris was knocked down and one of the wheels is thought to have passed over his leg. Fragments of a broken windshield glass found in the street were turned over to police.

Harold Stepenoff, 6 years old, 4502 A North Fourteenth street, suffered fracture of the skull yesterday when knocked down by an automobile after darting into the street in front of 1315 Cass avenue, between two automobiles parked at the curb.

Charles Ebersohl Jr., 5, of 4637 Idaho avenue, suffered skull fracture and bruises when knocked down in front of 4625 Idaho avenue. The boy had been playing on the sidewalk and ran suddenly into the street.

LETTER TELLS OF KILLING OF TWO MISSIONARIES IN CHINA

Men Said to Have Been Ruthlessly Slain by Bandits While on a Walking Excursion.

By the Associated Press. SHANGHAI, Aug. 31.—Further advices from Mienchow, Szechwan Province, received here today, say the Rev. M. J. Whiteside and the Rev. F. J. Watt, the two missionaries of the Anglican Church slain by bandits, were "murdered ruthlessly" 19 miles from Mienchow a week after they started from Mienchow on a walking excursion in the mountains.

The fate of the missionaries was described in a letter from F. W. Williams, accountant for the mission station at Mienchow. He said a runner appeared, notifying the two widows of the tragedy.

Mrs. Whiteside and Mrs. Watt assisted their husbands in the missionary work in which the Rev. Mr. Whiteside had been engaged for 18 years and the Rev. Mr. Watt for 14 years. The Rev. Mr. Watt was professor of science in the West China Union University at Chengtu. The deaths of the two missionaries occurred on Aug. 14. J. A. Bailey, head of the Church Missionary Society at Shanghai, the organization the Rev. Mr. Whiteside and the Rev. Mr. Watt represented, is investigating.

3 DISMISSED INSTRUCTORS OF BOYS' SCHOOL INDICTED

They Are Charged With Assault and Battery—School Management Is Exonerated.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Three dismissed instructors of the Parsons School for Boys were indicted today on charges of assault and battery and cruelty to children. Recommendations for the abandonment of the solitary confinement cage and abolition of severe punishment were made by the county grand jury.

Archibald Davis, John Shea and Romie Bowman were the instructors indicted.

The grand jurors exonerated the school management of charges of providing the boys with bad food and unsanitary surroundings.

CONFERS WITH MILLSPAUGH

Night and Day Bank Committee Find $40,000 Available for Dividends

The depositors' committee of the Night and Day Bank organization conferred today with State Finance Commissioner Millspaugh on phases of the defunct bank's affairs now in liquidation. They were given a copy of the audit showing the $1,762 deficit in the accounts of U. W. Ross, who is under indictment on a charge of embezzlement.

Several questions recently submitted to Millspaugh by the committee were discussed, among them the probable amount and date of the next dividend and the cost of administration. The committee was informed that there was about $40,000 available, not including the $50,000 bond of Ross and $75,000 bond of former cashier A. O. Meininger, and that it was hoped a settlement on the bonds could be effected soon. Speaking for the depositors' committee, F. E. Turin said that the committee was satisfied with Millspaugh's administration, which he termed more economical than that of Ross, and pleased with Millspaugh's statement yesterday that he would recommend that the Legislature make an appropriation to reimburse the depositors for Ross' shortage.

LEGAL DIRECTORY FIRM FAILS

Receiver Named on Petition Filed by J. C. Fisher.

Judge Mix today appointed Irvin H. Gamble, an attorney, receiver for the Legal Directory Publishing Co., on a petition filed by J. C. Fisher, president of the company.

Fisher, who is also editor of the publications printed by the concern, a 700-page directory on probate law and a 150-page directory of lawyers and bankers, said that since 1917 cost of publication had increased so that the expense exceeded the income. The petition gave the assets of the company as $54.86 in cash and accounts of doubtful value, while the liabilities include a note for $2250 and an open account of $828 due the Von Hoffmann Press. In addition to other debts, Fisher owns 56 of the 100 shares of stock in the company. An editor he was to get $275 a month salary in addition to a 5 per cent commission, and he says that $728 in commission is due him.

Capt. Randle Sent to Negro Regiment.

By the Associated Press. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Aug. 31.—Capt. Edwin H. Randle, infantry, a party to the recent controversy between him and his wife on one side and Col. Arthur L. Conger, his commanding officer, on the other, has been transferred to the Twenty-fifth Infantry (negro) at Nogales, Ariz.

Suit was brought by the Randles for damages to the reputation of Mrs. Randle, but the case was settled out of court. Col. Conger is now at Fort Meade, Ok.

Butchers Seek Wage Increases.

Wage increases from $32.50 to $37.50 a week for journeymen butchers are sought by Local No. 88, Amalgamated Meat Cutters and the new contract.

Butcher Workmen of America, in new contracts to become effective Sept. 1. About 600 men employed at 300 meat markets are members. The new wage scale also calls for $17 a week as the minimum for apprentices; $19 for the second half year, $22 for the second year and $27 for the third year. Several shops are reported to have signed the new contract.

NOW IS THE TIME TO MAKE YOUR LAWN

Rake, Mow Low, Rake, Sow
Grass, Comb Lightly, for Good Stand Next Spring.

The experience of the Missouri Botanical Garden is that autumn is the best season for making lawns.
George H. Fritz, horticulturist at the garden, today detailed procedure and a measure of eradicating rank grasses, which have flourished unusually during this summer and have overrun many lawns.
"Missouri springs are unfavorable to the cultivation of grass," he said.
"Winter rains into summer so quickly that there is too short a season of temperate weather to give new grass a strong stand. Nearly every spring has a period of drought and new grass suffers irretrievably. Artificial watering, no matter how painstaking, cannot be substituted for the gentle rains necessary to bring grass to sturdiness.

Time to Rake Lawns.
"From now until Sept. 15 is the time to rake lawns vigorously and sow new grass. Much of the rank, annual grasses—Crab grass, wire grass, and crow's foot can be killed out by this method without seriously injuring the bluegrass. Give lawns a vigorous raking now. Then set the blade of the lawn mower low and give the lawn a close cutting. The raking has lifted much of the rank grass up and the lawn mower will catch it low enough to kill much of it. It is the season of maturity for these rank grasses and close cutting and raking will destroy as much as 50 per cent of the seed.

"Then sow grass. Give it light raking and it will be found that in the cool, damp autumnal nights the seed will sprout sufficiently before winter to give it hardiness to withstand the normal droughts of spring. Bluegrass is slow in its early stages. There is time for development in autumn.
Spring is too brief before the heated season."

Experiments in Seedings.
Experiments to determine the best sort of grass for St. Louis and Missouri were conducted in the garden this summer in 18 plots. No definite conclusions are being announced, except that, so far as experiments have gone, it appears that Rhode Island Bent, sometimes called Colonial Bent, is the best grass for this climate. However, it is expensive, $2 a pound, and the garden is proceeding to further experiments to determine what other grasses or mixtures will thrive as well.

To this end 30 experimental plots are being set out, 22 of which will be planted with unmixed seed and eight with mixtures. By next sowing season, it is probable that the garden will have definite announcement of the best grasses for Missouri, both for lawns and golf courses—fairways and greens.

HESSIAN FLY THREAT TO WHEAT WORST SINCE 1916

Missouri May Lose 5,000,000 Bushels, Unless Fight is Waged Against This Pest.

By the Associated Press.
COLUMBIA, Mo., Aug. 30.—Not since 1916 has the Missouri wheat crop been so seriously threatened by the Hessian Fly as it is at this time.
Unless successful warfare can be waged to eliminate the insects, the damage may approach the 5,000-000 bushel loss suffered in 1916, according to a statement from the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri.

This year's records show the fly threatening from north to the south and from east to the west over the entire state, according to the department of entomology, which has maintained plots throughout Missouri since 1916.

To save the next wheat crop growers must do four things, the statement said. First, all wheat stubble not needed to grass or clover should be plowed as quickly as possible. Second, all growth of voluntary wheat should be kept down.
Third, no wheat should be seeded in Missouri this fall before the fly-free date for the locality. Fourth, no farmer in any community should fail to co-operate with his neighbor in saving next year's crop from the pest.

Slashes Throat With Safety Razor Blade—Doctors Say He Will Recover.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Orlando Walter Vaughan, formerly editor of the Clipper, a theatrical publication recently merged with Variety, attempted suicide yesterday on this street at Columbus avenue and 84th street. He slashed his throat with a safety razor blade and narrowly missed the jugular vein. Doctors say he will recover.

When they asked Vaughan at the hospital for the name of a friend to notify, he is said to have replied:
"I'm friendless."
Passerby said Vaughan stopped on the street, drew the blade from his pocket and, after slashing himself, collapsed. A police sergeant ran to his aid and, commencing a taxi cab, rushed him to a hospital.
Vaughan was editor of the Clipper from 1916 until it was merged with Variety a month or so ago.

Poplar Staff Boy Killed by Train.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., Aug. 31.— John Twitt, 18, an orphan, was killed by a Missouri Pacific train Wednesday night near Coalinga, Ark.
The body was found shortly after 7
a. m. Beside the body was a dog, which the boy evidently had been leading. The dog had kept watch of the side of its dead master.

This Boy is Worth a Million

YOU, his father, value him at that. Yet he may be trotting off to school each day, his joyous, developing life retarded by imperfect sight, as that of Theodore Roosevelt was in his boyhood. And the pity of it all is that you, his father, may not realize it.

Theodore Roosevelt Said:

"It was this summer that I got my first gun, and it puzzled me to find that my boy companions seemed to see things to shoot at which I could not see at all. One day they read aloud an advertisement in huge letters on a distant billboard, and I then realized that something was the matter, for not only was I unable to read the sign, but I could not even see the letters. I spoke of this to my father, and soon afterwards got my first pair of spectacles, which literally opened an entirely new world to me."

"I had no idea how beautiful the world was until I got those spectacles."

"I had been a clumsy and awkward little boy, and while much of my clumsiness and awkwardness was doubtless due to general characteristics, a good deal of it was due to the fact that I could not see, and yet was wholly ignorant that I was not seeing. The recollection of this experience gave me a keen sympathy and desire to remove the physical causes of deficiency in children, who are often unjustly blamed for being obstinate or unambitious or mentally stupid."

AWAKENED BY BURGLAR

Brooms Despite His Threats and He Is Forced to Flee.
Karetha Scheller, 15 years old, was awakened at the home of her brother-in-law, Harry Huber, 7809 Vermont avenue, at 2:30 a. m. by a burglar who had climbed through second-floor window by using a stepladder and was searching beneath her pillow.

When she screamed the burglar said he would shoot if she made another outcry. The girl continued to scream and awakened her baby brother, who was sleeping in the same room. The baby cried. The noise awakened Huber, who ran into the room just as the burglar leaped off the ladder outside the window and escaped.

Severe Censorship on Private Printed Matter Carried by Travelers.

Special Wireless to the Post-Dispatch and Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1923.
MOSCOW, Aug. 30.—Two interesting contrasts show up in recent developments in Russia. Society, which consisted of former opponents of bolshivism, now desires to co-operate with the Government. Censorship upon printed matter coming into the country is more severe than in the most drastic czarist laws.
The former antibolsheviks have just held a public meeting in a theater here. Two thousand persons paid an average of 50 cents each to listen for four hours to a solid talk on foreign policies. The audience was composed largely of the professional classes. They applauded references to Lenin and the soviet system enthusiastically. The speakers included Count Alexis Tolstoy, Russia's noted younger author, who has just returned from exile, and Prof.
Klutchnikov, former minister of finance under Kolchak. European issues were discussed with considerable freedom. The chief of police was on the platform, not in uniform.
Such a meeting was unthinkable even a year ago.

But as to the censorship of printed matter, many fantastic tales are heard. The writer's personal experience upon re-entering Russia does not lack its amusing side. The inspector at the border seized all papers, books and documents. He clearly was not acquainted with any language save the Russian and apparently not much Russian for he refused to pass a Russian grammar after opening it.
The Saturday Evening Post was condemned without a phrase. A volume of George Bernard Shaw's plays, bound in red leather, was allowed to pass through, while H. G.
Wells' History of the World, and Joseph Hergesheimer's latest novel bound in white was taken away.
Even numerous Russian documents, duty-stamped, were declared impassable while snapshots of the writer's children were taken away almost without scrutiny. Such a banalities happen apparently without the approval of the central authorities.

GOLD FOUND IN FIJI ISLANDS

Rich Lode Reported Discovered on Second Largest of Group.
Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch, Chicago Daily News Foreign Service.
HILO, Hawaii, July 27.—Gold has been discovered in Fiji, according to private advices received in Hilo. No announcement of the discovery has been made heretofore, because of Government restrictions, but the news has leaked out, and is fully credited here.

A rich gold-bearing lode is said to have been discovered near Savusavu Bay on the island of Vanua-Levu, the second in size of the Fiji group. Traces of gold have been found in the past in several Fiji localities, but have been confined to small pockets.
The reluctance of the Fiji Government in matters of this nature is well known. It takes the position that premature publicity would attract a rush of gold-seekers, fill up the islands and, when the boom subsided, leave an indigent population to constitute a new problem.

MUSIC FOR WAR ORPHANS

Illinois Women's Auxiliary of American Legion Announces Program.
By the Associated Press.
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Aug. 31.— Although the State is caring for war orphans in institutions in Illinois, no provision is made for musical entertainment and instruments, according to Mrs. Simmons, in her report of the work of the Child Welfare Committee of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion in Illinois. The lack of such provision has been brought to Mrs.
Simmons' notice by Ralph I. Sparford, superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Normal, Ill., to which, in addition to the St. Vincent's orphanage at Freeport, the committee has been assigned. Mrs.
Simmons said. It is suggested in Mrs. Simmons' report that funds for musical instruments be raised through the 10 cents per capita tax proposed to the Executive Committee when in session at department headquarters in April. This will be submitted to the department convention to be held in Danville, Sept.
17 and 18, for action.

Such Investments.
Investments made in Treasury Savings Certificates for the year, up to Aug. 1, in the St. Louis, Cleveland, Chicago and Kansas City Federal Reserve Districts totaled $46,493,411.
In the other eight districts in the same period, the combined total was $47,491,146. The St. Louis district has consistently maintained fourth place both in the total sales and the per capita sales for the year this far, there having been invested during this period a total of $10,980,350, or $1.17 per capita.
Treasury Savings Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1000, maturity value. They are sold at flat prices of $99.50, $92 and $920, respectively. They are dated on the day of purchase and mature five years from that date. They are registered and hence secure against loss. These securities are on sale at

GEOLOGIST SAYS EVERGLADES SOIL WILL PRODUCE OIL

Dirt in Large Section of Florida Richer in Petroleum Than Shale, He Reports After Tests.

BELIEVES DISTILLATION PROCESS FEASIBLE

Trillions of Tons of Oil-Bearing Organic Matter Available if Need for New Sources Arises.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
OTTAWA, Kan.—Dr. C. A. Gray of Ottawa, geologist and consulting petroleum engineer, says he has discovered what he believes is an important new source of crude oil for the United States and the world.

The theory that the State of Florida is a potential oil producing state is not new, but Dr. Gray offers a new idea in asserting that oil probably can be obtained in large quantities by drilling in Florida, but not by drilling in the soil of the Everglades.

Dr. Gray's "Fish Theory."

Dr. Gray says that the "fish theory," which holds that oil was formed as a result of decomposition of the remains of prehistoric animals is highly improbable. He has come to the conclusion that it came mostly from vegetable remains.

It was while doing research work along the oil lanes of Kansas and Oklahoma, to discover the relationship between shore line and oil structure, that the conclusion was forced upon Dr. Gray, as he explains it, that the majority of the oil pools were formed by vegetable matter. "I was fully aware that this conclusion was contrary to that entertained by majority of geologists," he said, "and to determine if decayed vegetable matter alone, such as is found in the Everglades, would produce oil by distillation, I obtained a small amount and conducted my experiment."

Richer Than Oil Shales.

The test resulted, according to his report, in the finding of a goodly amount of oil in the soil of the Everglades. In other experiments on the black soil of Texas, oil was found, but the material from the Everglades is much richer in organic matter, it is said.

"The importance of this discovery will be better appreciated," says Dr. Gray, "when one thinks of the hundreds of thousands of acres of these Everglades with trillions of tons of this material which may be converted into oil when the natural supply has been exhausted or the times demand it."

"Should this land again become submerged and the sea deposit a sufficient amount of over-burden, which in turn was followed by certain earth movements, setting up distilling processes and producing structures for the collection of oil, then this area would, in time, become of the extensive natural oil fields of the world." However, there have been two main sources of oil. "This far only one has been utilized to any extent—the drilling of wells and pumping of oil from underground sands. The other is extraction of oil from shale. However, Dr. Gray says the material he obtained from the Everglades was much richer in oil than any of the oil shales which he had examined."

Went Leaving Auto in Motion.
Mrs. Mayme Ebermann, 25 years old, of 5111 South Compton avenue, found by policemen at Knap's highway and Gravois avenue at 2 a. m. today, dazed and suffering from body bruises and a strained back, said she had suffered her injuries in leaving the automobile of her husband, Gottlieb, while the automobile was in motion. She was taken to the home of a relative on Bates street. She told policemen she was arguing with her husband when she left the machine.

and Federal legislation to encourage the development of commercial aeronautics was recommended by the committee on the law of aeronautics.

The committee also recommended that the attention of the association's members be called to the international problems connected with aeronautics, and to the necessity of the codification of rules governing aerial warfare.

The bill which it is desired be made a law would give to the Supreme Court authority to make rules governing procedure in cases at law to the same extent that it has power to regulate procedure in equity and admiralty and bankruptcy courts.

The convention also adopted a resolution directing that the next annual convention should be held in an Eastern seaboard city, and that immediately following it a special session of the association should be held in London, according to an invitation of the English bar.

FARM CONDITIONS IMPROVING, LAND BANK HEADS SAY

Reports Made to Federal Farm Loan Board Based on Surveys in Many Sections.

GOOD CROP OUTLOOK IN THIS DISTRICT

Ravages of Boll Weevil Cause Damage in Cotton Belt—Low Wheat Price Hurts Many.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Agricultural prospects were described generally as satisfactory and economic conditions throughout farming areas were regarded as hopeful by the presidents of the 12 Federal land banks who concluded a conference yesterday with the Federal Farm Loan Board.

The land bank heads based the views and subsequent report to the board on surveys made by the agencies scattered in every section of the country and with only a few exceptions their statements were optimistic.

Commenting that the reports taken together obviously revealed satisfactory conditions in some localities, Commissioner Cooper of the board declared the statements of the bank presidents "clearly demonstrated the generally sound and improving conditions in American agriculture." The commissioner added that he believed the farmers were back on their feet to stay. The reports summarized by the board include:

Third District (North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida). Conditions much better than in 1933, although recent rains have caused heavy damage and the boll weevil has damaged the cotton crop. Collections have been good. The farmers are turning strongly toward diversification of crops and this year many to make money in the market.

Fourth District (Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee). Crops on the whole are very good and general conditions have improved. Collections have been good.

Fifth District (Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama).—Of the four bolls, rice and sugar give most promising outlook. Corn has suffered materially from heavy rains, although the crop prospects justify the belief that a sufficient amount will be raised to supply home requirements. Rains likewise have damaged cotton, while the ravages of the boll weevil have caused damage in the cotton belt there, as in the Third District.

Sixth District (Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas).—Generally good crop prospects reported throughout the district. The Illinois farmers are suffering from the inflated prices of several years ago. As for the cotton belt, but prices appear promising.

Seventh District (North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan). The situation in North Dakota is promising a difficult problem to the farmer, but in the other three states conditions are very satisfactory. Wheat in North Dakota, greatly damaged by black rust and this, coupled with a low price, will make a profitable season on most farms in the state. Barley, oats, flax, corn and soybeans are good on an average and production of these crops will be much to make up losses in wheat.

Recovering From Depression.
Eighth District (Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Wyoming).—Prices for farm products are generally satisfactory, aside from wheat, and the district is rapidly recovering from the depression of two years ago. Conditions are especially satisfactory.

Ninth District (Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma).—Corn and wheat crops generally satisfactory, but the wheat farmers have suffered heavily. The unusual conditions of growth and floods in the same of last year have produced substantial losses.

Tenth District (Texas).—Wheat generally good, but cotton crop is in less than 50 days by ravages of boll weevil and drought. The cotton harvest has been active in some areas. Collections, however, have been satisfactory.

Eleventh District (Utah, Nevada, Arizona, California).—Crops on the whole are satisfactory. Cotton conditions are good and the sugar crop is better than last year. The fruit market is depressed, but the cattle industry of the section has not fully recovered from the depression of several years.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Agri-generally as satisfactory and eco-agriculture." The commissioner added that he believed the farmers were back on their feet to stay. The reports summarized by the board include:

Third District (North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida)— Conditions much better than last year, although recent rains have caused heavy damage and the boll weevil has damaged the cotton crop.
Collections have been good.
The farmers are turning strongly to diversification of crops and this has helped many to make money this year.

Fourth District (Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee)—Crops on the average are very good and general conditions have improved. Collections have been good.
Fifth District (Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama)—Of the four big crops, rice and sugar give most promising outlook. Corn has suffered materially from heavy rains, although the crop prospects justify the belief that a sufficient amount will be raised to supply home requirements. Rains likewise have damaged cotton, while the ravages of the boll weevil have caused damage in the cotton belt there, as in the Third District.

Sixth District (Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas)—Generally good crop prospects reported throughout the district. The Illinois farmers still are suffering from the inflated land values of several years ago. Arkansas cotton late, but prices appear reassuring.

Seventh District (North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan)—
The situation in North Dakota is presented a difficult problem to the farmer, but in the other three states conditions are very satisfactory.
Wheat in North Dakota, greatly damaged by black rust and this, coupled with a low price, will make a profit impossible on most farms in the State. Barley, oats, flax, corn and hay are good on an average and the production of these crops will do much to make up losses in wheat.

Recovering From Depression.
Eighth District (Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Wyoming)—Prices on farm products are generally satisfactory, aside from wheat, and the district is rapidly recovering from the depression of two years ago. Crop conditions are especially satisfactory.

Ninth District (Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma)—Corn and cotton crops generally satisfactory, but the wheat farmers have suffered heavily. The unusual condition of drought and floods in the same district has produced substantial losses.
Tenth District (Texas)—Wheat generally good, but cotton crop cut short in last 40 days by ravages of boll weevil and drought. The army worm has been active in some sections. Collections, however, have been satisfactory.

Eleventh District (Utah, Nevada, Arizona, California)—Crop conditions are satisfactory. Cotton in Arizona is good and the sugar-beet situation, both as to acreage and condition, is better than last year.
The fruit market is depressed and the cattle industry of the range country has not fully recovered from the depression of several years ago.

MANY TALES MADE UP ABOUT MAUDE ADAMS

Broadway Busy Making "Mystery Woman" Out of One Time Stage Favorite.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A new reputation is being established for Maude Adams among the Broadway sophisticates. While rumors and contradictions concerning her activities continually surge around her name, the actress maintains a secret silence which is causing her to be called among the phrase-makers "the mystery woman of the stage."
Latest among these tales of Miss Adams' plans is the story that she will go to India this winter to establish an organization which will make a motion picture of Rudyard Kipling's "Kim." The name of no quotable authority appears behind this report, and those who are most intimate with Miss Adams since her retirement from the stage hold small respect for the story.
"I talked with Miss Adams all Friday afternoon," one of her oldest friends said. "She said nothing about going to India to make a motion picture of anything. I do not believe she has any such plan."

Story Contradicted.
A flat contradiction of the "Kim" story was made by Harold Paget, of the Paget Literary Agency, who long has been Kipling's representative in the country.

"I have no knowledge of any such arrangement," Paget said. "If this plan were definitely in prospect I should almost certainly know of it."

An official of Doubleday, Page & Co., Kipling's publishers, also doubted the story.

"We are in constant communication with Mr. Kipling," he said. "If 'Kim' were to be filmed, it is likely that we would know of it; but nothing has been heard of it in our offices."

The secrecy with which "Peter Pan" has been fit to shroud her movements and her intentions for the last two years has taken hold of Broadway's imagination, so that the revival of the annual story of an intention to return to the spoken stage no longer holds any thrill for the sidewalk conversationalists of Forty-second street. Their curiosity demands stronger meat, and largely because Miss Adams steadfastly refuses to take the public into even the fringes of her confidence, they get it.

Miss N. A. Kiskadden.
Such meager scraps of authentic information concerning Miss Adams' more recent activities which are available are easily summarized. It is known that for some time she has been working at the plant of the General Electric Co. in Schenectady with Dr. Steinmetz, upon an idea of hers which has to do with the production of colored motion picture films through the use of new lighting combinations. It is not known what degree of success has been achieved.

It is known also that Miss Adams is keenly interested in the production of better motion pictures of stories which are especially suited for children. She said so herself a few weeks ago in an address before a gathering in Buffalo. Presumably when she gets ready, she will create a screen version of "Peter Pan." This, at least, appears to be a logical conclusion.

A few weeks ago Miss Adams returned from a visit to England. She booked her passage under her right-hand name of Miss M. A. Kiskadden, discarding her stage name. When she landed she refused to talk to reporters. At the Buffalo meeting a few weeks later she told her hearers that she had discussed with Sir James Barrie and Rudyard Kipling her plans for producing on the screen certain of their better known stories, and it is probable that from this remark the "Kim" rumor originated.

Why "Kim" should be especially selected from among Kipling's works as attracting Miss Adams' exclusive attention is not made plain. There is wonderful motion picture material in "Kim" certainly, but there is equally fertile opportunity in "The Jungle Book," "Puck of Pook's Hill" and "Rewards and Fairies." "Kim" is probably as good a guess as any other, but nothing has developed which would make it appear that it is any better.

EXHIBITION OF GERMAN BOOKS

40,000 Volumes Sent to Russia by Publishers.
CORRESPONDENCE of the Associated Press.
LEIPZIG, Aug. 12.—German publishers have sent more than 40,000 books for exhibition at the exposition which the soviet government is holding in Moscow this fall. Two members of the society for book exportation have accompanied the exhibit to Russia, and will supervise the arrangement in such manner that the books will give a definite idea of the historical development of Germany's publishing business.

Melto

REDUCING CREAM
is a fragrant, rose-scented cream which you apply, preferably to those places where you are too stout. It takes less than five minutes a day to apply Melto—and the results are miraculous!

It simply melts away excess fat from any part of the body—chin, neck, bust, hips, abdomen, legs, ankles —anywhere it is so harmful and as easy to use as cold cream.

A large sized jar of Melto costs only

Health Depends on Condition of Kidneys

You cannot obtain life insurance unless the doctor makes an examination to determine the health of the kidneys. Outside of the few questions he may ask, this is considered one of the vital points upon which your physical condition is determined.

Yet many people think that because they passed this test successfully, months or even years ago, there is nothing the matter with their kidneys today. A similar test today might prove them to be in a diseased condition. The cause of backache, headache, swelling of the extremities, distension, etc., may often be directly traced to improper kidney action.

Persons suffering from ill caused by failure of the kidneys to perform their duties should take Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy at once. It has been used with beneficial results for 50 years by thousands in all parts of the world. Your health depends on the condition of your kidneys so do not wait until it is too late before giving attention to these delicate organs. Sold by Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and all leading druggists. Sample sent free on request

VIEWS OF THE NATIONAL PARTY CHIEFS ON ISSUES IN THE 1924 CAMPAIGN

Both Indicate That Major Organizations Have Not Changed Stand Taken on League of Nations in 1920.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Collier's in its current issue prints interviews with Chairman Hill of the Democratic National Committee and with Chairman Adams of the Republican National Committee on the issue of the 1924 campaign. Both indicate that the major parties hold the same position on the League of Nations issue that they took in 1920.

The interview with chairman Hill follows in part:

"I do not desire to paramount any issue. Republicans' failure to carry out their pre-election promises, the condition of the country as the result of such failure, and the advantages that would have followed the carrying out of the Democratic platform of 1920 furnish us with plenty of campaign material. The Republicans have made such a mess of affairs that I do not wish to give them an opportunity to dodge discussion of their failures by centering their attack upon the League should I place it as the paramount issue. I want the public to consider it as only one of the issues on which the Democratic party will make their fight."

"Foreign Policies Vindicated."

"The facts and physical developments since 1920 have vindicated all the fundamentals and essentials of the foreign policies of the recent Democratic Administration, including the League of Nations, and will continue to do so. Stirred by illlightened self-interest and patent duty, America has ever stood ready to go to her reasonable and full part in making practical application of the well-established principle of international co-operation, in the light of conditions that may exist at the time. What conditions will indicate as wise concerning Article X, or other changes in the league, if any,
it is too early for us to determine.

"The incalculable losses and misfortunes that have befallen the farmers and other great groups of America, to say nothing of similar reverses to other nations, have been the direct result of the Republican policy of hermit isolation, which has been not only political but economic, social and moral as well."

Will Fight New Tariff.

"Are you going to make a fight against the Fordney-McCumber tariff?" he was asked.

"Most certainly. The Fordney-McCumber tariff not only flew in the face of every sound economic law, but it has operated as the greatest impediment to our foreign trade and to the establishment of sound reciprocal foreign markets.

In addition to this, it has created abnormally high prices of manufactured products. It has also established artificial high levels of production cost, with the result that our exports are at a hopeless disad-vantage in foreign competition.

There has not been a month during the past three years when Europe would not have purchased at top prices and consumed every ounce of America's surplus foodstuff if America had only co-operated in keeping stabilizing our international exchange, credit, and trade situation.

"It is supremely important to the American farmer to have sound reciprocal market conditions with the law of supply and demand in operation, so that a reasonable price may be had for his surplus. Unless the surplus can be sold at a fair price, it materially affects the home market. That this reciprocal condition does not exist, is due to the Fordney-McCumber tariff, and it will be a rock tied around the Republican neck during the next campaign."

Chairman Adams of the Republican Committee said:

"I still say, as I did some time ago, that sixteen million voters in the 1920 election voted against the League of Nations and all foreign political entanglements. The results of the last two years fully confirm the wisdom of this decision. I do not believe that the American people have changed their mind. European conditions are not such as would indicate the wisdom of America's becoming a partner in its political affairs. Some idealists, well organized and with abundant capital, are attempting to make America's financial and political problems a worldwide every public problem from a foreign viewpoint."

"The Republican National Committee takes America's side. Its platform is 'America first.' It opposes the League of Nations, opposes meddling in European affairs, opposes entanglements in foreign politics. This does not mean that the committee favors isolation. America has for more than one hundred years kept free from European entanglements, and still has been on the best terms with our European neighbors, willing to assist them over their difficulties and to co-operate with them economically, but holding aloof from any political affiliations."

"It has been charged that the Republican party represents capital and that its principal interest in labor is to exploit it. Is this true?" he was asked.

"It is untrue, as may be shown by the report of the Forty-second annual convention of the American Federation of Labor. This report shows that the last Congress enacted 17 laws favorable to labor and not a single one detrimental to it. Wages have been increased under Republican rule and more of the wage earners are at work. There were five million able-bodied men idle then; labor is at a premium now."

An immigration law was passed by the Republican Congress that restricted the hordes of competitive foreign labor from coming to these shores; their coming would have tended to cut down the wage scale.

"The Fordney-McCumber tariff, passed by a Republican Congress, has restricted the importation of the products of cheap foreign labor; their admission would also have tended to cut down wages. The Republican party is willing to stand in the next campaign on its record as a friend of labor."

"America's economic condition contrasts very favorably with that of other nations. It has vastly improved since the beginning of the Republican administration. While Europe is on the verge of chaos,

America is setting new pace-time records every week in industrial production, retail sales, and wage levels.
This result has been brought about mainly by the sound business policy of the Harding administration. Safe, conservative, constructive policies have given confidence to all legitimate business."

IRISH REPUBLICANS APPEAR TO BE GAINING

Assured of 28 Seats in Next Dail and Assert They Will Have 40.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Aug. 31.—The returns in the Dail Eirean election showed today that seats have been won as follows:

Government candidates, 41; Republicans, 25; Independents, 14; Farmers, 8; Laborites, 9.

The Republicans appear to be improving their position and assert the belief that they will fulfill their own forecast and win 40 seats.

Man in Jail Elected.
The returns covered must of the candidates known to the public. Dan Breen was elected as a Republican from Tipperary. He has been a noted figure in politics and always identified with the extreme wing. He now is in jail.

Bernard Mellows was returned as a Republican for Galway. He is a brother of the late Liam Mellows who was executed with Rory O'Connor.

Omond Gratian Bismot de, son of Senator Sir Thomas H. G. Esmonde, was elected as a Government supporter. During the Sinn Fein troubles he was deported from British Columbia to Australia, where he was refused permission to land in consequence of his attacks on the British.

George Wolfe, who was returned for the Government, is a large Kildare land owner. He is a descendant of George Wolfe who took Quebec.

Waterford has furnished only one constituency thus far where the Government failed to return any candidate. Here, next to Mrs. Cathal Brugha (Mrs. Charles Burgess), came Capt. William Redmond, who defeated Dr. Vincent White. White defeated Redmond in the contest for the Westminster Parliament and was a steady supporter of the Free State government in the last Dail.

Treaty Signatures Defeated.
The defeat of George Gavan Duffy, former Minister of Foreign Affairs, following the defeat of Robert Barton, both signatories of the treaty with Great Britain, the former a severe critic of the Government, from which he resigned, and the latter now a Republican and in jail, leaves in the Dail only one of the original five signatories of the treaty, Edmond Duggan. Two of Minister of Defense Mulcahy's brothers-in-law, John O'Kelly, in Dublin, and Dr. Ryan, in Wexford, have been elected as Republicans.

INTER-RACIAL BODIES NOW IN ALL STATES, NEGROES ARE TOLD

Widow of Former Governor of North Carolina Addresses Advancement Association.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Kan., Aug. 31.—Committee members here today in an effort to stamp out mob violence and lynching, and to bring about better relations between negroes and white people, Mrs. Thomas W. Bickett, widow of Gov. Bickett of North Carolina, said yesterday in an address before the race relations conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Mrs. Bickett spoke as a representative of the Inter-Racial Committee, she being chairman of the Woman's Committee.

Shortly after the armistice, distrust and suspicion, fanned by propaganda of various sorts, seemed abroad in our land, and mob violence, which had greatly decreased during the war, broke out afresh," Mrs. Bickett said, in reviewing the history of the committee throughout the South.

"It was in this crisis that the commission on inter-racial co-operation came into existence. Its membership was made up of leading educators, ministers, professional and business men from every state in the South, including many prominent negroes. State committees were organized, especially where the situation was acute, with the co-operation of the Y. M. C. A. machinery, and financed by the War Work Council. Better feeling immediately became noticeable and, having proved its efficacy in this crisis, the commission determined to enlarge its sphere and seek permanently to improve race conditions and put them upon a Christian basis.

"To this end committees have been set up in every state and 800 counties. Threatened lynchings and riots have been prevented, injustices have been corrected, co-operation for mutual welfare has been brought about and more friendly relations established, especially in communities where conditions were critical."

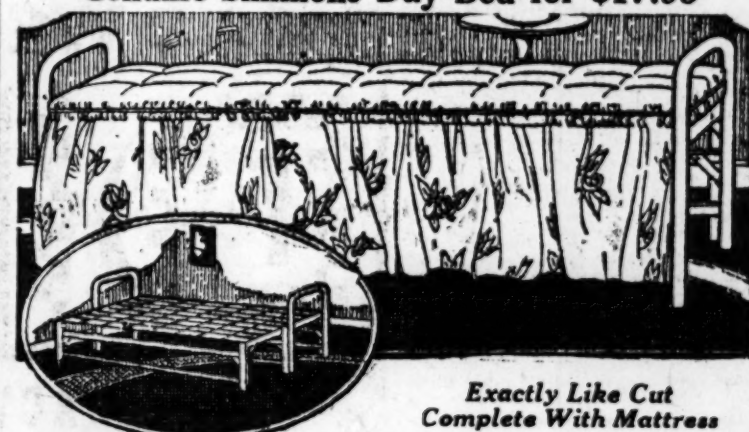

2 OFFICERS SLAIN, 3 WOUNDED, DURING RIOT IN NEGRO QUARTER

By the Associated Press.
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 31.—Two detectives and a negro were killed and three policemen were wounded early today while officers were answering a riot call to Rosedale, a negro quarter of this city. The rioting, which grew out of a quarrel among negroes, was suppressed, and 15 negroes arrested.

The dead negro policeman declared after an investigation, had been crazed by "moonshine" liquor and had fired all the shots at the officers.

HYDE AND LLOYD ARE AT OUTS OVER THE SEWARD CASE

Governor Did Not Call In Lieutenant - Governor to Act as Executive During Trip to Washington.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 31.— Gov. Hyde has broken with Lieutenant-Governor Hiram Lloyd of St.
Louis, until a few weeks ago one of the intimate advisers of the Governor, and acclaimed throughout the State as the probable administration candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed Hyde. So complete is the rupture between the Governor and the St. Louisian that the latter will not be permitted to act as Governor during the absence of Hyde from the State this week-end while on a visit to Washington.

Lloyd brought the end of the alliance which he had so carefully built during two and a half years of painstaking diplomacy by an official act while serving as Governor during the absence of Hyde at the funeral of President Harding. He announced the death sentence of James Seward, St. Louis gangster, who had been convicted of murdering Andrew Deck, suspected of informing against prohibition violators near Herculaneum, to life imprisonment.
Hyde several times had declined to interfere in the case, which he had caused to be investigated thoroughly.

Case in U. S. Supreme Court.

About the time the Governor departed for Washington, appeal from the Supreme Court of Missouri to the United States Supreme Court was allowed which automatically stayed execution pending action of the higher tribunal.

Lloyd's interference in the case under those conditions was taken by Hyde as deliberate meddling by the Lieutenant-Governor with matters which really were not his concern.

Although Hyde permitted publication of criticism of Lloyd's behavior after returning to Missouri, most of those close to Hyde and Lloyd believed that the rift between them would be closed after a while. It appears to have become a chasm.

Probably Pleasing to Hyde.

It is believed that Hyde has welcomed the opportunity to get rid of Lloyd without appearance of ingratitude. Lloyd, who performed valiant service in driving the Hyde legislative program through in 1921, wants to be Governor. Hyde was under such obligation that it appeared he would have to support the St. Louisian.

As pointed out in the Post-Dispatch at the time Hyde tried to get Lloyd to accept appointment as Sheriff of St. Louis upon death of the late Charles E. Mohrstadt, supporting Lloyd for Governor would not square with Hyde's future political plans. It is generally believed that the Governor will try to unseat Senator Spencer when the latter stands for re-election in 1926. Hence, he wants no embarrassing entanglements at this time.

Lloyd declined to be thus easily shelved, and declined the proffered appointment. His head has gone in the basket anyhow, so far as the administration is concerned.

The Governor has discovered that under a decision of the Missouri Supreme Court he need not call in Lloyd during a temporary absence from the State. And so he will not do so. What Lloyd will say about that is causing some speculation here, for the car of the Republican senatorial caucus combine in the legislative sessions of 1921 is not one to permit prerogatives which he regards as his to be trampled upon without setting out backfires.

Provision of Constitution.
The Constitution provides that "in case of death, conviction or impeachment, failure to qualify, resignation, absence from the State or other disability of the Governor, the powers, duties and emoluments of the office for the residue of the term, or until the disability shall be removed, shall devolve upon the Lieutenant-Governor."

In construing that section the Supreme Court in 1875 in a case in which Gov. Crittenden was attempting to collect pay for a period when he had been away in New York on duties connected with a sale of State bonds, held that "where the Governor is absent from the State in the discharge of duties imposed upon him by law the Lieutenant-Governor cannot assume the functions and receive the salary of the Governor," and that a "temporary casual absence from the State is not abandon in the sense contemplated by this section."

The decision also provided that unless the Lieutenant-Governor had formal notice that the Governor had left the State he could not know officially that such was true, unless it were an extended absence during which interests of the State were suffering. And in the case at bar Lloyd will get no notice.

Explanation of Governor.

The Governor will not discuss the situation much in explaining his intention of sidetracking his potential substitute on the ground that Sunday will be Sunday and Monday will be Labor day so that he will be out of the State only one or two working days, and does not anticipate developments of burning public importance in that time.

In fact the Governor is emulating the habits of speech of the man going to see, about everything.

ected with the trip. It is known, however, authoritatively, that he will inquire what the President's policy in prohibition enforcement will be, as to co-operation with State officers.
He wants to know whether Federal enforcement officials in Kansas City and St. Louis will work with the police, or whether the two forces will be expected to work independently.

May Also Discuss Patronage.

It is also expected that Hyde will try to ascertain whether the Babler-Dickey-Morse-Goldstein patronage line to the White House will be as air-tight now as it has been previously. It may be that he will point out to President Coolidge that the State administration expects to name the Missouri delegation to the Republican national convention and that it would not be disposed to support a candidate who had favored its enemies.

Hyde had expected to depart yesterday, but a stream of callers and routine delayed his start until today.

Strikes in Austria in 1922.

VIENNA, Aug. 31.—During 1922 there were 402 labor conflicts in Austria, 366 strikes and 36 lockouts.
One-third of these strikes, in which 58,732 men were involved, took place in Vienna. Only 94 of the strikes were successful, 173 were partially successful and the rest failures.

ROYALISTS RAGE OVER JAILING OF GERMAN PRINCESS

Margarethe Von Hohenlohe
Sentenced to Six Months
—Proud but Fallen Nobility Indignant.

HID CAPT. ERHARDT, MONARCHIST LEADER

Then Lied in Courtroom for Adventurer, After Taking Oath — Officer's Escape From Prison Followed.

By SAMUEL SPEWACK,
A Staff Correspondent of the New York World and Post-Dispatch.
BERLIN—When the Kaiser fled — when Princess Margarethe von Hohenlohe was led from the Leipzig courtroom to the medieval jail—to Germany's proud but fallen nobility these events are coupled in equal significance.

For this flaxen-haired, 23-year-old daughter of the most illustrious family of the old Empire was the first bona fide titled woman to suffer the indignity of a trial and what was worse, the reality of a six months' jail sentence.

The young woman's crime was that she had lied—lied for a man she loved as women of less glorious past had lied before. The man was Capt.
Hermann Erhardt, monarchist adventurer. When he was a fugitive she had shielded him in her castle.
When he was arrested she lied for him in court.

Sentenced to Six Months.
"But I did not violate my oath," she told the judge coldly. "I did not know I had taken an oath. I thought my word, the word of a Hohenlohe, was sufficient." She did not perceive the irony of her statement, for in the same breath she admitted she had lied.

But the common bourgeois judge was not impressed with the word of a Hohenlohe. He found her guilty and sentenced her to six months in jail. She received her sentence calmly.

Capt. Erhardt met Princess Margarethe two years ago. He was then a fugitive, sought by the Berlin authorities as an enemy of the republic. He was the military leader of the Kapp putch. He was the organizer of various secret murder societies. As a monarchist adventurer he was toasted by reactionary admirers in their stables throughout the Reich.

To Princess Margarethe he was a hero. He looked tall, dark, gallant and good to look upon. She proceeded to fall violently in love with him. She did not know, and he failed to tell her, that a Mrs.
Erhardt already existed.

Shielded Erhardt in Her Villa.
The Princess had a villa in the suburbs of Munich and Erhardt persuaded her to shield him there. She introduced him to the servants as "Dr. Eschwege," a relative. Erhardt went daily to the city, where he had many friends in high places.

To Munich came Dr. Metz, State attorney. Dr. Metz had been told Erhardt had been observed in drinking bouts with monarchist admirers in various cafes. Several days of investigation convinced him Princess Margarethe knew where Erhardt could be found. He summoned her as a witness.

Yes, she knew Erhardt, she told him, but did not know where he was now. She was released. The servants were questioned. Then Princess Margarethe was recalled. She appeared with a tall, handsome young man who introduced himself as "Dr. Eschwege," her cousin.

Dr. Metz testified at her trial in Leipzig.
"I asked her to take the oath before she gave her testimony. She replied that her rank precluded such formalities. I insisted. She said she would not take a religious oath, but a civil one. I consented. She denied Dr. Eschwege was Erhardt."

Escaped From Leipzig Prison.
"Then I showed a photograph of Erhardt to the gentlemen calling himself 'Dr. Eschwege,' and he replied nonchalantly he had never met the man. I told him I had established his identity. I appealed to his manhood to have the Princess recant her testimony, as this would put her in jail. After several minutes, Erhardt called out: 'The game is up.
Princess! I have been betrayed. Recall your testimony.'"

"But the Princess merely said:
'Why should I recall my testimony?'" The monarchist adventurer was taken to Leipzig. Princess Margarethe remained in Munich. Detectives who dragged Erhardt away testified she beat them with her fists, and when she realized the futility of resistance, begged to be taken to prison with him.

While she was in jail the Princess flooded him with letters. Erhardt himself rarely wrote. He was not interested any longer. She was no longer useful.
Then came his escape. Inquiry disclosed that prison officials had aided him. Then the Socialists screamed in indignation. They saw monarchist strength in the case of the escape and called upon the Government to vindicate itself. The Government responded.

Princess Margarethe, betrayed by the man she loved, deserted by his friends, fell victim. The Government could not find Erhardt, but it could send its agents to arrest the woman he betrayed, and later sentenced her to jail.

Does Your Want Advertising Create a Desire for What You Have to Sell?

Compelled to retire and sell out, you may assume that everybody wants to buy your store and business property because it is profitable to you. You assume your advertising in this case need only state "Store for Sale," giving name and address.

But is this true? Are you not wrong in assuming that anybody wants to buy your business? Better assume they do not until they are convinced that it would be to their advantage until you have aroused interest and created a desire.

Or, take it for granted that the prospective purchaser is seeking to buy, but is confronted with a score of openings and will investigate two or three want ads. Being in competition, your advertisement must interest him to bring him to you.

The problem then is, what will interest the buyer? He will want to know—Kind of store—Character of trade, cash or credit.

Location, good corner, live town, population.

Competition or none.

Stock, up-to-date, large or low, building leased or owned, or for sale.

Price and terms.

Business if successful.

Other attractive features.

With these in mind we can proceed to write the ad.

CLOTHING STORE—Good cash trade; central location; laws $3000; very little competition; clear stock; long lease; $5000 for cash offer, or will make $2500 a year; retiring account ill health; excellent chance to get this established trade. Ad—free.

Apply the same principle to anything else for sale.

Prevailing Opinion, Based on Firpo's Scotch Financial Methods, Is That He's a "Near" Champion

Wilson to Defend Middleweight Title in Bout With Greb Tonight; Odds 2 to 1 Against the Champion

Pittsburg Challenger, Who Had to Work Faithfully to Make the Weight, Is in Fine Fighting Condition—Neither Contestant Has Displayed Knockout Punch.

By John E. Wray,
(Sports Editor of The Post-Dispatch)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—World's middleweight ring champion Johnny Wilson (born Giovanni Panica) must be president or at least a charter member of the In Bad Club. To begin with, he will face Harry Greb, in their world's championship battle at the Polo Grounds tonight, second choice by the longest odds ever laid against a title-holder on the eve of battle—5 to 1.

Also to judge by the scant publicity accorded the match up to today, Wilson is about as popular in New York as an angry polecat at a garden party.

As a result, Wilson today is in the opinion reflected in the various sporting news pages here, facing defeat, a financial frost and a long, hard winter.

Not since the big pugilistic promotion bubble here began to swell to hasbeen-dream proportions has a bout been received by the public—or at least by the newspapers—with such cold indifference. Up to this morning the match in practically all the dailies had been dismissed with a perfunctory reference.

Whether the bout is overshadowed by the coming Leonard-Dundee and Dempsey-Firpo fights, or near at hand, or whether there is more deeply seated reason is mere conjecture. Ask the men on the street and they tell you that the newspapers don't seem to think much of either man.

Records Justify Attitude.

Perusal of the records justify the news critics, somewhat. To begin with, both men have been knocked out. Greb fell before George Chip, early in his career. Since that time, however, he has redeemed this taint by victories over some of the most famous men in the heavy and light heavyweight world. His only real setback was a defeat by Gene Tunney, a decision that was roundly criticized. Wilson, however, suffered his knockout while champion. The record book will say that in 1921 he won a bout from Bryan Downey, but a matter of fact the Cleveland Boxing Commission and every interested fan at ringside declared Downey knocked out Wilson in the seventh round. The personal referee for Wilson gave the decision, and the New York commission recognized it. Nevertheless, when Downey and Wilson fought again, the New Jersey commission, though it upheld Wilson's showing, that it held up his $25,000 guarantee and the New York commission backed it up.

Wilson's record contains no evidence of greatness either as a knockout fighter or as a boxer of great cleverness. The quality of his opponents has been far below that of the men Greb has faced and beaten.

These facts, coupled with the lack of a knockout punch by both men, may explain the apathy toward this bout for a title that once ranked almost on a par with world's heavyweight championship in importance. Today it is a finishing walkover, rather than boxing skill, that takes with the fans.

Greb a Hard Man to Fight.

Nevertheless the bout has the earmarks of an interesting contest, one full of action, unless Wilson's safety tactics spoil it. Greb, the bounding Elk of the ring world, a fighter who proceeds on the style of Johnny Dundee and can keep up his flashy tactics for 15 rounds without tiring, may not be a knockout fighter, but he can rip and tear and out and discourage the most formidable opposition.

In order to make the weight he has had to train harder than ever before in his life and as a result today he is not only able to scale 160 pounds at 2 p. m. without trouble, but he will be a lion in strength when he enters the ring. Greb has been at weight for some days and has made considerable efforts in practice have conclusively satisfied critics here that he is better than for years.

Wilson backers Wednesday forecast the champion's odds down to 9 to 5.

Facts About Tonight's Championship Bout

Principals—Johnny Wilson, New York, middleweight champion; Harry Greb, Pittsburg, challenger.

Conditions—Fifteen rounds to a decision.

Weight—160 pounds at 2 o'clock p. m.

Battle ground—Giants' baseball park, Polo Grounds.

Starting time—8 o'clock St. Louis time.

Betting—Greb favorite at 1 to 2.

Best fights—Greb knocked out Al Roberts at E. Bendit, Larry Williams, Homer Smith, Gumbert Smith; won from Gene Tunney, Bob Roper, Tommy Gibbons, Jeff Smith, Charley Weinst, Tommy Robinson, etc.

Wilson—Beat Mike O'Dowd in 12 and 15 rounds. Won on a foul from Bryan Downey at Cleveland. Commission declared Wilson had been knocked out; had popular verdict over Bryan Downey in a bout so poor that Wilson's money was held up; knocked out a few unknowns; gained decision over Leo Houck, Augie Ratner, George Robinson and little-known foe.

Against—but last night, when the Pittsburg bank roll made its appearance around Forty-second and Broadway, the odds against the record book will say that in 1921 he won a bout from Bryan Downey, but a matter of fact the Cleveland Boxing Commission and every interested fan at ringside declared Downey knocked out Wilson in the seventh round. The personal referee for Wilson gave the decision, and the New York commission recognized it. Miss Burns and Miss Fordyce to Play for Title

Kansas City Girl Eliminates Mrs. Reinhart in Western Golf Semifinal.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Miss Louise Fordyce of Youngstown, O., champion, today won her semifinal match in the women's Western golf championship tournament at Exmoor by defeating Miss Florence Halloran of Salt Lake City, 4 and 2.

In the other semifinal Miss Miriam Burns of Kansas City, Mo., champion, overwhelmed Mrs. Elaine Reinhardt of Dallas, 6 and 5, by shooting well under par, while the Texas star herself was playing in perfect figures most of the way.

Miss Halloran shot a par golf in the first nine and held the Ohio champion even for three holes and she quickly squared the match with a birdie four on the 24th yard hole after losing the fourth to a birdie 1.

Then Miss Fordyce took the lead with a birdie four on the 15th yard hole, and she held the Utah woman's brasserie found a trap and was never headed thereafter.

The Ohio champion took the 5th with a birdie four and turned two up having gone out in 41 to Miss Halloran's 45. They halved the next two holes in par and are under par. The Utah star won the 23rd yard hole on each side and under par. The 16-yard thirteenth in four but lost the next two and Miss Fordyce was down three. Miss Halloran found the rough with her drive on the 12th yard hole, barely clearing the green, and she was short in 3, taking 6 while Miss Fordyce despite a sliced drive to the wood was nearly on for a par 5 and a victory, 4 and 2.

Miss Burns Brilliant.
Miss Burns tied the course record of 36 set by Mrs. Lee Mide of Chicago, Wednesday, in defeating Mrs. Reinhardt. The Missouri champion scored 40 on each half, five under par for the first 9 and three under par for the second half. She shot 8 birdies and all the rest of the holes were made in par although she had to negotiate two strokes.

Mrs. Reinhardt started poorly, doubling her second on the 5th yard hole and putting her fourth over the green for the only 7 of the day. She was short on the 12th yard hole and the fifth, but halved the next two holes with birdie 4 and 3 and halved the seventh and eighth in par. Missing a birdie four on the 17th yard eighth because of a dead stroke, Miss Burns laid her after she was dead to the hole in 1.

Turning 4 up, Miss Burns halved the 12th yard hole in par and won the 13th yard eleventh with a birdie four to become five up. After halving the 24th yard twelfth where Mrs. Reinhardt missed a four foot putt for a half.

The Cards.
Miss Fordyce out—455 554 444—43
Miss Halloran out—465 445 454—45
Miss Fordyce in—545 435 544—43
Miss Halloran in—545 444 444—43
Extra holes:
Miss Collett, 5 3. Miss Faust, 5 5.

JACK JOHNSON BARRED FROM NEW JERSEY RING
By the Associated Press.
TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 31.—Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion, will not be allowed to box in New Jersey, according to a decision announced today by State Boxing Commissioner Bugbee, which forbids the proposed match between the negro pugilist and Billy Mike of St. Paul, at Newark, Sept. 15.

The ban on the heavyweight was issued by Mr. Bugbee because of Johnson's conviction for violation of the Mann Act, in the Federal courts several years ago.

WIN THE SEVENTH GAME

Johnston outgeneraled Anderson to win the third game.

The American had the full battery of his brilliant strokes working in the fourth game, which he won as he did in the first.

The American's wildness, however, cost him the fifth game. Anderson won on four successive hits.

Johnston broke through service in the sixth game, aided by two place-men aces and took the lead at 6 games to 2.

Johnston drove the Australian from one side of the court to the other with streaking drives in the seventh game, which he won on his own service. Still playing at top speed, the American reeled through the eighth game at love to make the set 6-2. Set score: Johnston 2, Anderson 1.

Shocker Conquers Tyrus Cobb In the Pinch and Scores His Twentieth Victory of Season

Browns Advance to Within One-Half Game of Third Place by Beating Detroit, 4-0 — No Game Today — Danforth Scheduled to Pitch Saturday.

By Joseph F. Holland.

Ty Cobb, the same nervously confident Ty Cobb that baseball followers have seen for the past eighteen years was at bat. He had men on first and third bases with only one out and the Detroit Tigers were trailing the Browns in the eighth inning by a score of 3 to 0. A double would score two runs and pave the way for a tied score. A single would score one run and carry a rally along.

It was distinctly the last desperate stand of the Tigers, fighting to hold their slender, third-place advantage over the Browns. It was just as clearly a determining duel between Urban Shocker and this same Ty Cobb.

Shocker pitched coolly and carefully, as he always does, and Cobb stood at the plate with that menacing bat describing swift, short and narrow movements. He fouled off two, one of them to the top of the left field pavilion and then Shocker broke the backbone of that rally and preserved his game by forcing the greatest star of the past to raise a high fly to Ezzell half way between the plate and third base.

Mighty Tyrus Defeated.

Cobb did not get over that failure immediately. When he went back to the outfield in the Browns' half of the eighth, he pounded his hand disgustedly in his glove and gave the turf a savage kick when he thought of that high pop fly to Ezzell. That was the Tigers' biggest chance. It was their last chance and he had thrown it away.

It mattered little that the Browns scored another run in their half and finally won, 4 to 0, for Shocker's twentieth victory of the season. The moment of that game was when Shocker faced Cobb in the eighth inning. It was only one of several chances that the Tigers had to score, but it was the last, desperate stand. And Ty Cobb could not alter an impending defeat.

No Game Today.

The victory for Shocker reduced Detroit's third place lead to a half game. By winning Saturday and Sunday—there is no game today—the Browns can start in their last, long swing through the circuit in third place. The Cleveland Indians are in second place but they are only three and one half games ahead of the Browns. Jimmy Austin has not yet given up hope of attaining second place, the same position the club won after a heated pennant campaign with the Yanks last year.

Shocker's Twentieth Victory.

Shocker gave nine hits yesterday, four of them in the eighth and ninth innings. But he always had enough reserve power to do to the remainder of the Detroit batting array what he did to Cobb in the eighth. They put men on bases but they did not get them around. Shocker has now won 20 and lost 10 games. George Uhle of Cleveland with 22 victories and 11 defeats is the only man in the American League with a record superior to the one owned by Shocker.

Dave Danforth will pitch for the Browns Saturday against Fillette or Bert Cole.

Kenneth Williams, a runner-up to Babe Ruth for home run honors in the American League, contracted a touch of pneumonia poisoning during the period the Browns were idle early in the week and has not recovered sufficiently yesterday to get into uniform. The date of his return is uncertain but he will attempt to play Sunday at the latest.

Cedric Durst, who substituted for Williams yesterday, made a double in four times at bat and scored one run.

Hank Severid has a slight fracture of the collar-bone which he suffered about a week ago when struck by a foul tip. He caught two games thereafter but the pain finally forced him to have an X-ray taken. It disclosed the fracture. He probably is out for a week at least.

Charles Hoffer, shortstop of the Cubs, who left his team some time ago because of illness, attended the game. He said he was greatly improved and expected to be in excellent physical condition to start the season next year.

De Forest Picks Dempsey to Win

Jack Should Score a Knockout in Four Rounds, Famous Trainer Asserts.

By Fair Play.

Copyright, 1923.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—While fight fans and men who are in the habit of laying large sums of money upon the outcome of ring battles have been casting about for some definite opinion from worthwhile sources as to what Firpo will do with Dempsey, Jimmy De Forest, who trained Firpo for his important fight, has kept silent. He is the one man who should have a definite line upon this contest, having trained Dempsey for his Willard bout and thus being thoroughly acquainted with the champion's style and methods.

Jimmy long maintained silence for reasons of his own, one of which, however, may be a deep-seated unwillingness to stand in the position of a sorehead. But out in Jersey where De Forest's physical training camp is a visiting place for many of Jimmy's friends he has not been so reticent. The writer today is in a position to present the opinion of this great trainer and coach as to how the Sept. 14 battle will come out. Here it is.

"Dempsey," says De Forest, "should win inside of four rounds. He should put Firpo away in that time. Jack is a natural fighter at the peak of his powers. Firpo is a fighter who still has much to learn. He is a made fighter. That's all I can say at this time."

There is no shrewd judge of boxing form and physical ability than De Forest. Until the Argentine delegation of trainers arrived here the Jersey instructor was bringing Luis along very nicely and it may be said that Firpo has the idea that De Forest taught him all that Jimmy had to teach. So far as theory goes that is the truth, but lessons in boxing involve more than that. It involved the long and rigid application of theory, day after day of practice in timing, in delivery and in learning how to flash an opportunity and to avail himself of it when it appears.

There is no shrewd judge of boxing form and physical ability than De Forest. Until the Argentine delegation of trainers arrived here the Jersey instructor was bringing Luis along very nicely and it may be said that Firpo has the idea that De Forest taught him all that Jimmy had to teach. So far as theory goes that is the truth, but lessons in boxing involve more than that. It involved the long and rigid application of theory, day after day of practice in timing, in delivery and in learning how to flash an opportunity and to avail himself of it when it appears.

Dempsey Displays Punishing Punch In Training Bout

Jack McAuliffe, Almost Kayoed in a Round, Says He Expects Champion to Win Early.

By the Associated Press.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 31.—With his heavyweight championship fight with Luis Angel Firpo just two weeks away, Jack Dempsey, although still suffering from a cold today, settled down to his intensive training grind.

The champion, if he follows his program, will work for the next 12 days without any more lay-offs. Dempsey's impressive showing yesterday against Jack McAuliffe, in the Michigan heavyweight's initial workout, convinced his friends that he was rapidly rounding into form.

McAuliffe started to give Dempsey two rounds of boxing, but he was forced to quit after three minutes, going back to the rubbing room with his right eye shut and his left ear bleeding from a slight cut. In the one round, Dempsey had McAuliffe dangerously on the verge of a knock-out.

McAuliffe said after the workout that he hadn't pulled on a glove since his fight with Floyd Johnson and was not in the best of shape. However, he said he did not want to detract from Dempsey's punching power.

"Dempsey is a harder puncher than Firpo and I will be the most surprised man in the world if the South American is able to come out for the second round," McAuliffe said. "I know what I'm talking about. I've faced both men. Dempsey steps around so fast and shoots his punches with such speed and force that Firpo will be bewildered. Dempsey will hook him to pieces. Firpo's best punch is a long right. He is made to order for one of Dempsey's left hooks. Firpo hasn't a chance unless he hits Dempsey by accident."

The champion late ripped into Jack Burke, sending the Pittsburgher back on his heels half a dozen times. Burke, however, seemed crowded in to the champion and nipped him with rights whenever he found an opportunity which was almost too frequently to suit Dempsey. McAuliffe probably will be able to work today but George Godfrey, the 225-pound negro, is back to take his turn along with Burke. Ray Newman, a Jersey City light heavyweight, who joined the ranks of sparring mates.

FIRPO HAS SHOWN THAT HE CAN TAKE A WALLOP AND STILL BE STRONG

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Within three months after arriving in the United States in the winter of 1922, Luis Angel Firpo, challenger for Jack Dempsey's world's heavyweight title, had three opponents, all of whom he defeated by knockouts. He received less than $1500 for all these engagements.

Firpo's first opponent was Sailor Maxted. The sailor mugged up Firpo in the first three rounds, but ran into a sledge-hammer right in the fourth that took the wind out of his sails. He was so badly battered immediately after that he proved an easy victim in the sixth.

Joe McCann, a New Jersey rounder, was the South American's second victim. Joe was finished in six rounds, but he holds the distinction of being one of the few to land effectively on the Argentine. McCann sent Firpo to his knees with a heavy right to the chin in the fifth round, but was so badly battered immediately after that he proved an easy victim in the sixth.

Italian Jack Herman of Newark, N. J., holds the distinction of sleeping longer under a Firpo punch than any other man who opposed the South American giant. Herman managed to evade Firpo's wallop for four rounds, but forgot to duck in the fifth. A Firpo right landed on his jaw, then a left found the point of his chin. He was raised a foot off the floor and landed flat on his back. Forty minutes later he awoke and said: "Was anybody else hurt?"

"Good," he said in English, then added in his native tongue: "Did I don't think there'll be any time for talking in any language. Puncches are the only things I understand in a fight anyway."

GENE MUETH, ST. LOUIS BOY, TO JOIN OMAHA

Mueth is a catcher. He has been attached to the Milwaukee (Ill.) independent team for whom he hit about 410 and fielded close to 980. He was recommended to Manager Ed Konech of the Omaha team by Frank Ruppenthal, Mueth lives at 2405 South Tenth street.

ST. LOUIS ROWING CLUB OARSMEN DEPART FOR LITTLE ROCK RACE

The St. Louis Rowing Club barge crew, undisputed champions of the St. Louis harbor, depart tonight for Little Rock, Ark., where they will compete in a match race with the Little Rock Rowing Club crew Labor day.

Tomorrow the St. Louisans will work out in a barge loaned to them by the Little Rock club. They expect to be able to acoustom themselves to the new shell in the course of two day's practice.

Local oarsmen are confident that the St. Louis crew will bring back the seven medals and the trophy donated by the Little Rock Club. The St. Louisans have not been defeated this season over the three-quarter mile course. They have won the event in both the Central States and Southwestern regattas as well as in the Municipal championships at Creve Coeur Lake.

The crew is made up as follows: M. Rohr, bow; Wm. E. Bentlage, No. 2; Wm. Zoeller, No. 3; A. Kreuzberger, No. 4; H. Buss, No. 5; H. De Vries, stroke; J. Cuddy, coxswain.

Facts About Peggy Kell.
When 8 years old she became interested in farm development, livestock and fowl raising.

Has a flock of 60 pure-bred Langshans which she raises herself from a small "hatch." Also a flock of 40 Rhode Island Reds.

In 1921 won Virginia State Fair prize for the best Hereford beef calf.

test held in Atlanta. As a member of this team she visited many of the finest farms in Virginia during the training period and was selected to judge beef cattle, dairy cows, hogs and sheep. The team won second place in Atlanta. She helps her mother select animals for the home dairy herd of 75 head.

Being very fond of horses, especially devoted to Corinas, a mare which she had owned since she was 7 years old, Peggy decided in 1914 that she wanted to raise ponies for market. As a result she now has a herd of 20 which she is breaking for the Shetland trade. Collie dogs also are a speciality and she has a ready demand for every puppy she has for sale.

Mrs. Nora Gammon, elected Mayor of Thebes, Ill., she will run the town just as she does her kitchen.

HEROINES OF HISTORY

By MARK STUYVESANT

THERE is no saint or martyr who has been more gloriously eulogized than the lovely and noble St. Cecilia.

Many singing societies composed of women bear St. Cecilia's name and many great painters have pictured her as she sits at the harpsichord. For Cecilia was a musician and is regarded as the patron saint of music.

To us are familiar the reproductions of two famous paintings of this fair saint. The originals are two of the greatest paintings of all time. One is by Raphael, and the other is by the great Dutch painter, Rubens, and hangs in the Old Museum at Berlin.

In both St. Cecilia is attended by angels. In Raphael's picture she is listening to the heavenly choir, while the earthly instruments lie unnoticed at her feet. In Rubens' picture she is seated at the harpsichord.

*Cecilia was born in the second century after Christ. In that day it was a crime to be a Christian, and many who embraced this new religion paid with their lives for their belief.

Very few of the nobility embraced this radical teaching. It was the masses who crowded the secret meetings. But there was one noble lady who was converted and joined the Christian church. It was Cecilia, the daughter of one of the proudest houses of Rome.

It is the story of her beautiful life which the old English poet, Chaucer, recites in his Canterbury Tales. It is entitled, "The Second Nun's Tale."

In later years another English poet, the great Dryden, honored her memory in his "Ode for St. Cecilia's Day," which is celebrated on November 22.

Cecilia was a very young girl when she dedicated her life to Christ, and it was a great grief to her when, after having sworn a vow of celibacy, she was forced to marry a handsome young soldier of the legion—Valerian.

After her marriage, Cecilia told Valerian that she was a Christian and that her life was to be devoted to the work of the church. Valerian was astounded, for he had not dreamed that this girl of noble family had been converted to the new religion belief in which meant death.

So sincere was she in her conversion and so sweetly did she speak of her religion to her young husband that he became interested at once. At Cecilia's suggestion, Valerian visited Urban the Good, who lived in the catacombs. It was there that the good man taught.

Not only was Valerian converted, but his two brothers also became converts. Immediately they started out to preach and work among the poor. But not for long, because it was soon discovered that they were Christians, and the beautiful home presided over by Cecilia—who made it bright by her lovely voice and sweet music on the harpsichord—was broken up. The three brothers paid the penalty of death.

Soon Cecilia was seized and taken before the Governor. When she admitted her faith, she was condemned and suffered the most horrible torture before she died.

For three days she endured her torture, never complaining or uttering a groan, but busy making preparations so that after her death her money should be used to help the poor.

It is because of this that she is called St. Cecilia.

Philosophical Phrasings

As the calling dignifies the man, so the man much more advances his calling.

Thought is troublesome to him who lives without his own approbation.

A mountain is made up of atoms, and friendship of little matters, and if atoms hold not together, the mountain is crumbled into dust.

He who cannot forgive others breaks the bridge over which he must pass himself, for every man has need to be forgiven.

Selfishness is a vice utterly at variance with the happiness of him who harbors it and, as such, condemned by self-love.

Children's Bedtime Story

By Thornton W. Burgess

HAVING seen Bowser the Hound most respectful and polite to a young Skunk, the young Chuck living in the old stone wall on the edge of the Old Orchard became more interested than ever in the Skunk family. He could see that Bowser the Hound and that young Skunk were not friends, but that they treated each other with the utmost respect. He wondered what would happen if that young Skunk should meet Reddy Fox. He found out only a day or two later.

Reddy was trotting through the Old Orchard past where the young Chuck was peeping out from between the stones of the old wall. It was just as the Black Shadows came creeping out from the Purple Hills. The young Chuck should have been in bed, but he had found out that this was the hour when the members of Jimmy Skunk's family were most likely to come out, and he had formed the habit of watching for them. So it was that he saw Reddy Fox.

The same young Skunk he had seen before came out of the old house under the apple tree and started to amble along in the direction from which Reddy Fox was coming. The young Chuck saw that they were bound to meet. His eyes sparkled with excitement. He held his breath. Something was bound to happen.

Something did happen. Reddy Fox stopped very abruptly the instant he caught sight of the young Skunk. The young Skunk didn't stop. Could it be that he didn't see Reddy Fox? He kept right on just as if he didn't. Reddy waited until the young Skunk was almost to him. Then very politely he stepped aside.

"Good evening," said Reddy in his smoothest voice. "Good evening, my young friend. I hope your father, Jimmy Skunk, and your mother, Mrs. Skunk, are very well."

The young Skunk nodded. "Very well, thank you," he replied. "It's a fine evening, isn't it?"

Reddy agreed it was. Then as soon as the young Skunk had passed, Reddy continued on his way. But his face was not a pleasant face. No, sir, the face of Reddy Fox was not a pleasant face, as he turned to look back at the young Skunk, who didn't even look behind him.

"My, my, my!" thought the young Chuck. "My, my, that is independence! He doesn't pay any more attention to Reddy Fox than he would to Striped Chipmunk. I don't understand it. He isn't very big, yet he acts as if he hadn't a fear in the world."

Striped Chipmunk came along about that time, and the young Chuck was full of questions. Striped Chipmunk told him all about the little bag of scent the young Skunk carried, and how everybody else dreaded it.

"That is why he is so independent," explained Striped Chipmunk. "All the members of his family are the same way. It is the truest independence I know of. No one ever interferes with them, so they never interfere with anybody else. They are armed for defense. But just so long as they do not need to use that scent, they never do use it. No one wants to give them a chance to use it, and so no one interferes with them." Striped Chipmunk sighed. "I wish I could be as independent as that," said he.

The young Chuck sighed. "I wish the same thing," he replied.

HAM MOUSSE

TWO cups finely chopped ham, one teaspoon mustard, few grains cayenne pepper, one tablespoon granulated gelatin, one-fourth cup cold water, one-fourth cup hot water, one-half cup heavy cream. Pound ham into mortar with mustard and cayenne. Soak gelatin in cold water and add to mixture, with cream beaten until stiff. Turn into mold, chill, remove from mold to cold serving dish, garnish with parsley. Serve with sauce.

My Sweetie Went Away

She didn't Say When Where or Why

HEAR this record, a new Okeh hit by Markels Orchestra, and you'll appreciate how hopeless it is to describe in words the tremendous dance appeal of this tantalizing fox trot.

No matter how many other records you may get this month, you can't afford to miss Okeh Record No. 4898, "My Sweetie Went Away." It's in a class by itself.

Reason Your Little Girl Deserves It

#8

There is nothing that gives such a cool, soft, fine finish as Linit—for washing your children's clothes.

That is why mothers welcome Linit, the remarkable starch discovery.

Linit makes even ordinary fabrics look and feel linen.

Because Linit remains thin and free-running like water.

The Man on the Sandbox

GOING UP.

Hiddle diddle, the cat and the fiddle.
The cow jumped over the gate;
The milkmen laughed to see the graft,
And consumers paid the freight.

THE EDICT.

"STRIKE if you must this old gray head.
But work the mines," G. Pinchot said.

THE PELICAN.

THE pelican is clean and white
And very canny, too;
He never has been known to bite
Off more than he could chew.

QUITE SO.

Jack Dempsey must be a poor fisherman. The only thing he seems to catch is a cold.

"Aged Man Injured in Auto Accident."
The "aged" man was 60. Youth will be served.

President Coolidge doesn't play golf. However, he has many other admirable qualities.

The President's principal outdoor amusement is horseback riding. He is superstitious about Fords.

"Plan Reorganization of Illinois Missouri Milk Association."

That ought to be good for another advance of a cent a quart.

The milk business is one infant industry that is thriving on the bottle.

Jim Corbett can't figure where Firpo has a chance with Dempsey. Things are looking up in the Firpo camp.

Capital idea, Hugo. Don't make any misprints.

Art Fletcher has signed to manage the Phillies next year. If Art manages to hold his job two years in succession he will be the world's greatest manager.

The Phillies didn't hit their stride until late in the season. They're liable to take the bit in their teeth and bolt any time.

Few pitchers are knocked out of the box these days. They are yanked out by the manager.

Any time a pitcher wants to go to the races all he has to do is give a base on balls and allow a couple of hits in succession.

Well, the manager has to do something to earn his money, hasn't he?

Might get better results sometimes by taking out the manager and leaving the pitcher in.

Golf is about the only game where they advise you to keep your head down. In all other sports it's "heads up."

FAVORITE STORIES

By Irvin S. Cobb

BOTH SIDES OF THE PROPOSITION.

DOWN the Black Patch along the line between West Kentucky and West Tennessee, where the heavy dark tobaccos are grown, a prominent planter grew dissatisfied with the marketing arrangements. It seemed to him he was not getting a fair deal from some of the large European buyers and from the American shippers who acted as the middleman. He decided to make a private inquiry as to conditions.

For his emissary in this matter he chose his overseer or crop manager. The latter was an expert in making the earth yield of its bounty and regarding the curing and packing of the weed he had no superior in the South. But he had never been farther away from home than Louisville and had never seen a larger city than Louisville. Trusting, however, to the man's native shrewdness the planter put him on the train with instructions to go to New York, conduct a personal investigation and report back by telegraph.

Upon his arrival the visitor went direct to one of the larger docks on the North River, where several ships were being loaded with the product of the Black Patch for shipment abroad. Next he visited a warehouse where tobacco for domestic consumption was stored and immediately sent his principal this telegram:

"Better sell this year's crop for any price you can get. I've done seen more tobacco already than the whole world can use in the next 12 months."

After this he took a stroll uptown. When he reached Broadway and Fortieth street he hunted up another Western Union office and wired his employer as follows:

"Disregard first message. Hold all the tobacco you've got. There's enough folks in this town, alone, to chew it all up inside of the next 24 hours."
